3 Suspects in Atlanta Gem Robbery Disarm Road Block, Shoot Up Cars

RALPH McGILL

'Huracan,' or Evil Spirit

In the West Indies the Taino natives, cowering late each summer before the approach of mighty winds, called them "huracans," or evil spirits. In the China seas primitive peoples feared the "ty fung," or great wind. From these come our words "hurricane" and "typhoon."

A great scientist has said we live on the edge of a mystery. It is true. In truth, we live on the edge of many mysteries, all of which combine to make the great one.

The sky is a mystery.

It is an ocean of air which can be benign or murderous.

Guy Murchie, who for many years has been a navigator for a transatlantic airline, but who is a poet at heart, wrote a book about the great ocean of air. It is called "Song of the Sky." He takes you into it. He makes you friend of the clouds, the stars, the air currents.

Discovery of prevailing winds changed the economies of vast regions, caused flourishing cities to be abandoned; brought financial ruin to owners of caravans, enriched owners of sailing vessels who were privy to the secret of the winds.

For those who look to the sky with wonder and questioning mind this is a fascinating book.

Hurricanes

For those now worried by hurricanes and the threat of them, Guy Murchie provides an introduction on the printed page . . . rather than in a storm cellar or in some battened-down house.

Winds have fascinated all manners of men since the beginning of time, but most of all poets and writers of narrative, and now, of course, scientists who deal with aerodynamics.

Homer called the four winds by name. Boreas was the cold north wind. He was pictured as a much-muffled-up old man, blowing bitter blasts from a giant conch-shell horn. Euros was the east wind, shielding himself with a high-held cloak. Notos was the life-assisting south wind, a kindly god, emptying a jar of warm, crop-producing rain. Zephyros was the beautiful young god of the west wind, carrying a variety of fruits in his cloak. When Ulysses began his great journey, Aeolus tied up the winds in a bag and gave to the hero every wind needed to blow his ship. Careless sailors untied the bag and allowed the winds to escape, free of discipline, to plague and bless the world.

We learn from Murchie that heat is the great factor in turbulence. Even today little is known about the birth of hurricanes. Their initial power is, says Murchie, conjectured to come from a rising vortex of heat over water that "must be at least 82 degrees Fahrenheit and surrounded by a certain amount of atmospheric instability."

'Birth'

When, he continues, air begins to rise in any area, the surrounding air must move inward to replace that which has risen. And, unless it is almost exactly at the equator, it is bound to acquire some rotation from the effects of the turning earth. As it rushes inward, it inevitably spins the faster, taking on the characteristics of a young hurricane. . . . Usually the vortex dies out before too long, but near the time of the autumnal equinox in the Caribbean when heat has attained its peak "one occasionally becomes a monster of violence."

Not many of us think of the constant turning of our earth . . . it does not always seem stable. But, we cannot long fix our mind on its wheellike turn, though the day and night facts of it always are at hand.

The United States suffered a "hurricane defeat" in mid-December, 1944. Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet retired to refuel after a strike at Luzon. The rendezvous was 500 miles eastward in the Pacific. Oil lines were attached. Suddenly huge seas came up, breaking the lines before fuel could be pumped. There was no information as to the hurricane's course or center.

The full fury of the winds struck Halsey. Some 790 men were killed. Three warships were sunk, 22 seriously damaged, 146 aircraft were demolished or blown overboard.

Certainly a "huracan" is an evil spirit.

67 Die in East's Mightiest Flood

By The Associated Press

The worst flood in the history of the eastern United States continued its rampage through nine states last night with a death toll of at least 67 and property damage which could run into billions of dollars.

As the agonizing job of salvaging the remnants started in some areas, torrential rains continued to pound the New England area and the crisis there worsened through the night.

Governors of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and Connecticut proclaimed a state of emergency.

The latest reports put the biggest single number of dead in Waterbury, Conn. the brass manufacturing center. Mayor Richard Lee of New Haven quoted Waterbury Mayor Raymond Snyder as saying at least 15 persons lost their lives.

In Stroudsburg, Pa., a once-robust resort center in the Pocono Mountains, there were nine known dead and possibly 20 others missing. The community's principal roads and bridges were washed away or under three to four feet of water. The water supply for drinking purposes was cut off. The principal hospital in the area was isolated.

The storm developed Thursday after Hurricane Diane spent her fury in the Carolinas. In some areas the rainfall was the heaviest ever recorded—in one instance 11 inches in 36 hours.

The storm whipped across Virginia causing one person to drown, and then swept through Washington and the states of Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island and New Jersey.

State by state, this was the situation last night:

PENNSYLVANIA — Thirty-two persons had drowned, three died in traffic accidents and two were electrocuted in the storm. Highway damage alone was estimated at 10 million dollars. Four communities were without drinking water. The Delaware River was expected to flood Easton and possibly some parts of Philadelphia early Saturday.

CONNECTICUT—States of emergency were declared in Waterbury (Pop. 104,000), Torrington (28,000), Seymour (8,000) and Ansonia (18,-

State Buyer 'Not Liable' For Quality

If a state agency ever accepts any faulty goods, the responsibility is squarely on that state agency—not the Purchasing Department, S. F. Skrine, assistant purchasing agent declared Friday.

Skrine made this comment when L. H. Keever, storekeeper with the State Highway Department, reported he had rejected 100,000 sheets of paper purchased from Park Supply Co. of College Park.

Keever said Skrine had asked him to change his original request and to try a different brand of paper. Then the Purchasing Department bought from Park Supply. George Whitman Jr., chairman of the State School Building Authority and head of the State Board of Education, is connected with Park Supply.

AGENCY RESPONSIBLE

Skrine expressed doubt that the paper delivered was "inferior," He said Keever had asked for the lowest grade paper, so he did not see how he could get any lower.

"However, if a state agency thinks the purchases delivered do not meet specification, it is the duty of that agency to reject the purchases," Skrine said. "The Purchasing Department cannot assume responsibility for checking all deliveries. We will be glad to help see that they get what they want."

Skrine said the fact that Park Supply did pick up the paper complained of and replace it with paper approved by Keever showed the good faith of the company.

SUBSTITUTED BRANDS

Skrine said he has substituted brand names requested by state agencies in order to give Park Supply some of the state's business — when the price and the quality of products were the same. He said he tried to even up the state's business in other fields, also, with other companies. However, he said he had not substituted brand names to channel business away from Park Supply to other firms—"because Park Supply gets only a negligible amount of paper business."

The assistant purchasing agent declared that he did not know that Whitman was connected with Park Supply until recently when he read about it in the newspapers. He said it makes no difference to him who is connected, or not connected with a firm—just so long as legitimate bids are submitted and the bids are as low as any offered for the same quality of product.

Russell Says He Won't Bid for '56 Nomination

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Sen. Richard Russell (D-Ga), who unsuccessfully sought the Democratic presidential nomination in 1952, said today that he "definitely will not run again."

Russell said he had no favorite choice for the nomination.

"It is rather obvious that Adlai Stevenson will get it if he wages a campaign," Russell said. "As of today, Stevenson could carry the South."

Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, sailed on the liner United States to tour air bases in England and construction sites for air bases in Spain before visiting American troops in West Germany.

Kemper Replaces 2 Welfare Board Chiefs

The chairman and vice chairman of Fulton County's welfare board were eliminated Friday in new appointments announced by State Welfare Director Alan Kemper.

Kemper appointed Carl Plunkett to succeed the chairman, Charlie Mathias, and Mrs. C. A. McLucas of Hapeville to replace the vice chairman, Miss Sue Methvin.

The terms of Mathias and Miss Methvin expired last June 30. Miss Methvin was a veteran member of the board. Both had previously received appointments from Kemper.

Mathias had issued statements urging revision in state welfare laws to require the naming of technically trained welfare persons to the post of state welfare director.

R. E. (Red) Dorough, who was filling the unexpired term of Walter Thomas, was reappointed to the board for the full three-year term. Terms of Preston Sumner and Tom Slate do not expire until next year.

Plunkett, active in civic affairs is connected with a photostating company. Mathias is field representative of the United Steel Workers (CIO). Kemper said he is sure Mrs. McLucas and Plunkett will make satisfactory board members..

Bibb Mother, Baby Die As Flyer Crash Kills 5

MARKED TREE, Ark., Aug. 19 (AP)—Four cars of a passenger train jumped the track today, bashing a day-coach against two boxcars parked on a siding and killing five persons.

A physician, the first on the scene, said four persons were killed instantly. Two were in critical condition.

Most of the dead and injured were riding the daycoach, fourth from the end. The thunderous impact peeled its steel side back in jagged pleats.

The dead included:

Mrs. Edith Randall Rinker, 25, of Macon, Ga., and her child, Glen, 1½; Patricia Jane Crawford, and Mrs. Ben. A. Putter, Kansas City, Kan., and the dining car chef, William Richards.

An unidentified woman died later in a Memphis hospital.

Paul T. Reese, 65, of 119 Palisades Rd., NE, Atlanta, general sales manager of Egan Cotton Mills, was one of those injured. He Said, "I was in the car next to the coach that was wrecked so bad. I was thrown all over the car. Someone was yelling, 'My God. . . .' My foot was injured."

The train was the Kansas City-Florida Special of the Frisco Railroad. The pileup happened about half a mile outside this east Arkansas town (Pop. 3,000), some 40 miles northwest of Memphis, Tenn.

At least 21 passengers were hos-

State Offers Distribution Plan for Salk

All Georgia children aged 1 to 9 and some pregnant women over the state would be eligible to receive free government polio vaccine under a distribution plan submitted Friday by the Goergia Health Department.

The plan is subject to approval of the U.S. surgeon general.

With federal approval vaccine would be distributed for use by private physicians and local health departments throughout the state beginning in October.

Dr. John H. Venable, assistant director of the State Health Department, estimated some 480,000 free shots would be made available under the new plan.

If shots were given by private physicians, no charge would be made for the vaccine, but only for professional services.

The surgeon general is expected to act on the Georgia plan by Sept. 1. Georgia was granted $992,329 under the $30,000,000 polio aid law signed Aug. 12 by President Eisenhower.

So You'll Know They Rob Meters Legally

Workmen repairing Atlanta's parking meters have decided to buy uniforms in self defense.

Irked by being repeatedly eyed as thieves robbing the meters, the seven meter repair men have asked that they be permitted to buy uniforms since the city does not furnish them.

Asst. Traffic Engineer Lamar Thomas said the new outfit will be charcoal gray trousers, blue shirts, and gray caps.

Three heavily armed men, suspected of robbing an Atlanta jewelry store of $25,000, disarmed three police officers at a license inspection road block in southeast Georgia late Friday and escaped in a seized car, the State Patrol said.

The incident occurred around 7:30 p.m. on Highway 135 between Hazlehurst and Uvalda, about 200 miles from Atlanta. The State Patrol posted road blocks on all main highways leading into Florida immediately after the alarm was sounded.

Florida and other neighboring states also were alerted for the gunmen, two of them described as short, dark complexioned and "foreign looking," and the third taller with blond hair.

MOTORISTS FLEE

After disarming two patrolmen and a Montgomery County deputy sheriff at the road block, the gunmen smashed radios in two police cars and fired bullets into the tires.

The three then paraded down a line of cars stopped at the road block, a pistol in either hand shouting and shooting down tires, Montgomery Sheriff W. Claude Sharpe said. Many of the motorists abandoned their cars and fled into the woods.

In addition to the two police cars, tires were blasted on eight other vehicles.

CALIFORNIA PLATE

The three abandoned a 1946 Nash bearing a California license plate and took a 1955 Chevrolet belonging to William Gordon of Uvalda. In the Nash officers reported they found watches and other items of jewelry which they said could have been part of the Atlanta loot.

Also in the Nash were found parole papers belonging to a prisoner who was released at San Francisco, Calif., in 1952. Investigators asked that the name of the prisoner be withheld temporarily.

Before driving away, the gunmen stripped the three officers of their guns and took a sawed-

Georgia Road Bids Shave $3 Million Off Estimates

Apparent low bids of $10,960,000 were received Friday on work Georgia's three road and bridge-building agencies had expected to cost approximately $14 million.

Bids were opened on 74 projects by the State Bridge Building Authority, the State Highway Board and the Georgia Rural Roads Authority.

The bids opened by the Rural Roads Authority were the first taken by that agency. However, a contract will not be let on one project in Gordon County since only one bid was received on it and two or more are required.

Two jobs for more than a million dollars each were among those listed by the highway board.

One was for 4.392 miles of widening and reconstruction of the Columbus-Manchester road and the Columbus-Hamilton road in Muscogee county. The $1,260,481 bid of Foster and Creighton, Nashville, Tenn., was the apparent low.

The other was 5.235 miles of additional paving on relocation of U.S. 23, the Atlanta-Gainesville road, in Gwinnett County. Suber & Co., Inc., of Whitmire, S.C., submitted the apparent low bid of $1,189,745.

Webb Lashes At Small Loan Insuror Fees

The Georgia Legislature never intended to allow loan companies to levy the large insurance charges Insurance Commissioner Zack Cravey is allowing under the Industrial Loan Act, Fulton Sol. Gen. Paul Webb charged Friday.

The solicitor general, long an advocate of controls for loan companies, said he pointed out before Cravey issued his regulations that the Legislature "never intended such insurance charges as he is allowing."

Webb said he was sure Cravey is not following the intent of the law on the insurance charges.

Cravey's latest restriction of the size of loan advertising to 16 square inches is "just a smoke screen to take the attention away from his other misinterpretations of the law," Webb said.

In addition, Webb said, Cravey is "trying to intimidate the newspapers by limiting their advertising revenue, and I don't believe the papers will let him do it."

Tennessee Girl Named Miss 441 In Dublin Fete

DUBLIN, Aug. 19 (AP)—Miss Barbara Jean Gaut of Pigeon Forge, Tenn., Friday night was elected "Miss 441" at ceremonies sponsored by the U.S. Highway 441 Association.

She defeated three Georgia girls in winning the title and an expense-paid tour of Florida.

Miss Janice Webb of Eatonton was second, Miss Waunell Vickers of Douglas, third, and Miss Phyllis Sue Rigdon of Homerville, fourth.

The highway runs from Michigan to Florida.

USING ELECTRIC SAW

DeKalbRooferHurled To Death by Shock

A 36-year-old Tucker carpenter was killed Friday when an electrical shock sent him tumbling from the roof of a house under construction on Clairmont road, DeKalb County police reported.

Fred Jackson was pronounced dead upon arrival at Emory University Hospital, Lt. F. C. Roberts said. Roberts added it had not been determined whether Jackson was electrocuted or was killed by the 10-foot fall.

Jackson was using an electrically operated saw to trim sheeting on the roof of the partially completed home near Briarcliff road, Roberts related. He said Jackson received a shock which caused him to slide down the roof and drop head first to the ground.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by A. S. Turner & Sons.

Reds 'See No Block' To Unification Talk

Bonn Fears Adenauer Can Win Little in Moscow Confab

MOSCOW, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Soviet government said today it "does not see any obstacle" to discussing German reunification and the return of war prisoners with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer during his visit to Moscow next month.

These discussions would be in addition to talks on the question of establishing diplomatic, trade and cultural relations between the Soviet Union and the West German republic. Adenauer had insisted all these questions are bound together.

A note delivered by the Soviet ambassador in Paris to the German ambassador in the French capital said the Soviet Union saw "no obstacle" to taking up the reunification and war prisoners issues. But the note's phrasing did not raise hopes much progress would be made.

SEE LIMIT TO GAINES

(In Bonn most West German political leaders expressed fears the most Adenauer can expect from his Moscow visit is establishment of diplomatic, trade and cultural relations and the prospect of losing prestige at home by failure to win ground on the other key points.)

The text of today's note, read at a news conference in the Soviet Foreign Ministry, said:

"Confirming the receipt of the note of the German Federal Republic of 12 August, 1955, the government of the U.S.S.R. has the honor to communicate that it agrees that the negotiations with the government delegation of the German Federal Republic headed by Chancellor Adenauer should begin in Moscow on 9 September.

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

"The Soviet government acknowledges the consent of the government of the German Federal Republic to discuss the question of establishing diplomatic, trade and cultural relations between the U.S.S.R. and the German Federal Republic and also the questions connected therewith.

"As for the question mentioned in the note of the German Federal Republic about the unity of the German nation the Soviet government does not doubt that the position of the Soviet Union on this problem is known to the government of the German Federal Republic.

"The Soviet government, of course, does not see any obstacle against exchanging opinions on this question as well as on other international problems of interest to both parties.

OPPOSED TO NATO

Press Chief Leonid Ilyichev recalled to newsmen that the West German note of Aug. 12 stated that Adenauer wanted to talk about "national unity of Germany and the question of setting free Germans still on Soviet territory."

In its reference to the fact that the Soviet position on reunification is well known, there was an obvious inference that Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin's Geneva statement—that West Germany's membership in the Atlantic alliance continued to block reunification—still stands.

PRISONER ISSUE

The Soviet note's reference to "other international problems of interest to both parties" was understood to cover the Russian leaders' assent to examine the war prisoners issue.

Release of the Soviet note coincided with the presence in Moscow of more than 1,000 East and West Germans, more than a score of West German journalists and ballyhooing of a football game Sunday between Russian and West German teams.

Gallagher Gets Life, Army Gate

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP) — A court-martial today found Sgt. James C. Gallagher guilty of killing two fellow GIs in a Red Chinese prison camp and sentenced him to life imprisonment at hard labor.

Col. Harmon Broyles, court president, announced Gallagher would be dishonorably discharged and forfeit all pay and allowances.

Gallagher was accused of callously throwing the soldiers, who were ill, from a hut in the prison camp out into frigid Korean temperatures and leaving them to die because he didn't want to hear their moans.

The court of eight officers deliberated almost five hours in reaching the guilty verdict.

Gallagher was the first American accused of murder of comrades in a prison camp in the Korean War. He received the maximum sentence for the crimes.

The court also found him guilty of mistreating and informing on fellow prisoners and of collaborating with his Red Chinese captor.

pitalized. A dozen were treated at an emergency hospital, set up in a Methodist church near the scene of the crash, for relatively minor injuries.

Only the last four cars of the 13-car train were involved. Several hours after the wreck, the undamaged portion of the special moved on to Memphis.

Marked Tree is not a scheduled stop for the Special, reported making about 40 miles an hour at the time of the wreck.

Conductor W. F. Wood of Springfield, Mo., who was near the front of the train, said, "It felt like we hit a broken rail."

Before he could pull the emergency brake, he added, the train began to separate.

Harvey Holt, 19, an attendant at a nearby filling station, said he saw two of the derailed cars "start bucking and bouncing" near the junction of the main line and a spur track.

The scene of the crash, on a 20-foot high embankment within sight of the town, drew a milling crowd.

The physician who organized the emergency hospital said, "There was considerable confusion, but on the whole they (the crowd) did pretty well. Everybody pitched in to help.

"No one was trapped in the wreckage, although it did take a rescue crew, armed with cutting torches, about an hour to remove one of the bodies."

Ambulances summoned from Memphis, Jonesboro, Ark., and other nearby cities moved the injured to hospitals.

O. F. Neiswanger, who lives near the scene of the wreck, said he was in his back yard when he heard the steely thunder of the leaping railroad cars.

FINDS COOK DEAD

"I was there before the train stopped rolling," he said. "I ran into the Pullman (second from the end). There was no blood there and I ran on to the next car (the diner, third from the end) and found the cook dead in the aisle.

"I went on to the car that was so badly beat up (the daycoach). I carried one woman—she wasn't bad hurt—down the embankment. She kept hollering for her baby. Another man carried the baby.

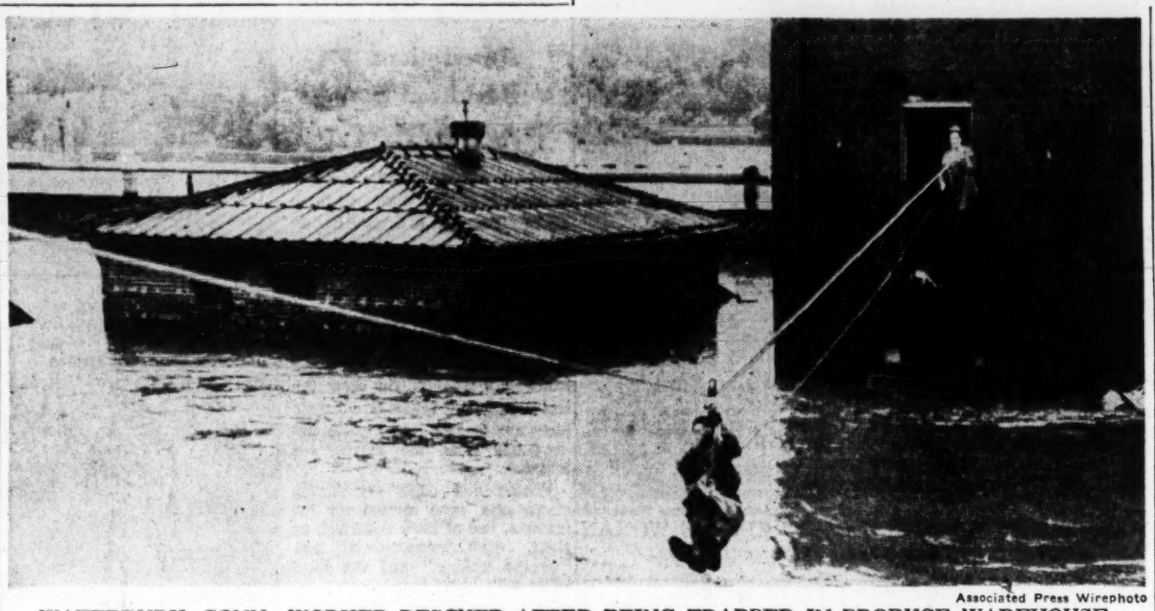

"There was lots of moaning and groaning in that coach. Most of those who were really bad hurt died before we got them out. I counted four dead."

WOMAN'S STORY

The violent jolting break in the train's smooth roll sent passengers head over heels.

Mrs. Nellie Toclzsch of Denver, thrown from her seat, said, "A soldier came flying over on top of me." She escaped apparent injury.

The wreck occurred at 9:30 a.m. soon after the diesel-powered train passed through Marked Tree. It left Kansas City at 11:25 last night and was due in Memphis at 10 a.m.

Polio Strikes 62 More in Mass. Wave

BOSTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Sixty-two new cases of polio were reported today by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, raising the state's count for the year to 1,606. Eighty cases were reported yesterday.

Boston again reported the largest number of new cases—14. This was two less than reported yesterday.

Lenox, in western Massachusetts, reported four new cases and Framingham and Salem three each.

The unofficial Massachusetts death toll from polio stands at 55. No deaths have occurred among persons who received Salk anti-polio vaccine.

Defer East Point Playground Plan

The Fulton County Board of Education will reconsider its plans for an East Point Negro school playground rather than cause recial differences, Supt. Paul D. West said Friday.

West's comment followed a protest meeting of East Point white citizens regarding the school board's plans to build a playground for its East Point Negro elementary school at the corner of E. Washington and S. Bayard streets.

West and board member Charles N. Martin Jr. met with the group who contended the property where the playground is to be built has served as a buffer zone between white and Negro residents.

The residents contended at least two white home-owners plan to sell their property.

Danny Files To Divorce Re-Wed Una

RED BLUFF, Calif., Aug. 19 (AP)—Airman Daniel C. Schmidt, 22, filed today for divorce from Una Schmidt Fine, 20.

The charges included that she was an unfit mother, and he asked custody of their 2½-year-old son.

When Schmidt returned last week after 32 months in a Chinese Communist prison, he found that his wife had married another man. She said that, in the belief Schmidt was dead, she had married Alford Fine, 21, a tractor operator.

Schmidt's divorce suit charged Una with being an unfit mother, that she was guilty of extreme cruelty; that she caused Schmidt grievous mental suffering.

He asked "permanent control and custody" of their little boy, whom he had never seen until he returned from almost two years in the Red prison. His wife would be given the right to visit the child.

Schmidt stopped here on his way to visit his mother, Mrs. Nellie Peters of Portland, Ore. He once lived in Tehama County near Red Bluff.

000). The borough of Naugatuck (18,000) was put under martial law. In this community the number of missing persons was put as high as 50.

RHODE ISLAND—A dam burst under pressure releasing tons of flood waters into a thickly settled section of Woonsocket. All residents were evacuated before the barrier gave way. No towns were reported isolated as yet.

MASSACHUSETTS—At least 10 dead, roads blocked, bridges washed out.

NEW YORK—Port Jervis, a rail center in south central part of state hit by flooding Delaware River. Police Chief Edward Cullinan said damage would hit a million dollars. Rescue operations being carried out by Air Force helicopters. One person drowned.

NEW JERSEY—Worst flood in 50 years killed one in engulfing northern New Jersey. Hundreds evacuated.

Pilots and observers flying over the affected areas reported awesome scenes of destruction and heroic rescue operations.

From Easton to Stroudsburg, a distance of 20 miles, a total of 20 bridges, some pedestrian, others traffic, were washed away.

"I have never seen anything like it in my life," one pilot reported in talking about conditions in Winsted, Conn. "It looked like someone had taken automobiles and thrown them at one another."

The Hartford, Conn., Weather Bureau warned the Connecticut River would crest above flood stage sometime Saturday threatening heavily-settled Holyoke and Springfield in western Massachusetts and Hartford and Middletown, Conn.

MANY ISOLATED

New Haven Fire Chief Thomas Collins, said after touring the Naugatuck-Waterbury area that many persons were isolated on building tops:

"They couldn't get boats to them. The current was too swift."

Scranton was cut off from its drinking water supply. Mayor James Hanlon proclaimed a state of emergency after the three arterial water mains burst. All business industry and public buildings were closed.

The Red Cross, which dispatched 20 disaster experts into the flooded areas, trucked water to hospitals.

Helicopters and other craft, operated by the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard and National Guard units, sped into many sections of all the stricken states to rescue stranded persons.

RAILROADS CURTAILED

Railroads, particularly in New England, were forced to curtail operations.

Roads by the hundreds were reported swamped, isolating small towns and villages. In three Pennsylvania counties alone, dozens of bridges, many of them major ones, were washed away. Dams yielded to the great weight of the waters. Eyewitnesses said that certain parts of eastern Pennsylvania would be many months recovering from the harm done to roads and bridges.

The Keystone State's fourth largest city—Scranton, with a population of more than 120,000—was without water suitable for drinking unless boiled. The gushing tide ripped out all the vital mains.

Emergencies were proclaimed in Scranton, and in nearby Tamaqua, and National Guardsmen patroled water-filled streets. Tamaqua, flooded for the first time in 52 years, had neither power nor telephone service until dawn, and even then these utilities were skimpy.

Work To Begin On Grandview

Work will begin Monday on the $50,000 extension of Grandview avenue, NE, from East Paces Ferry road to Pharr road, Ald. Jesse Draper, chairman of the public works committee, said Friday.

Draper also said work will be completed within the next 10 days on the $20,000 widening of Mangum street, NW, from Simpson street to Jones avenue and on the Simpson street crossing over the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad. The railroad paid for the improvement to eliminate the crossing.

Irish Army Raid on British Post Revealed as Hoax by Jokesters

LONDON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Britain's War Office confessed with a red face tonight that the "raid" by masked gunmen with Irish accents on an army post in Wales four days ago was just a lot of blarney.

The whole affair—48 hours after a real raid on the armory of a garrison near Reading, England—was "a practical joke" carried out by four unnamed Junior National Service officers an official statement declared.

The War Office added that the hoaxers "express their deep regret to the public for the alarm caused and to the police for the trouble they have been given."

To that apology, Lt. Gen. Lashmer Whistler added the regrets of "the army to the police" for the incident, the statement said.

All police stations in north Wales and northern England were alerted after the mock raid. Road blocks were set up and a police cordon organized because it was assumed the outlawed Irish Republican Army had been at work.

Jewelry Robbery Suspects Disarm Road Block

off shotgun from one of the car.

Troopers L. T. Barlow and E. W. Tillman and Deputy Leroy Fountain were left stranded at the road block with the frightened motorists until they could flag down a passing auto.

Sheriff Sharpe personally posted a $100 reward each for the three men, dead or alive. He said bloodhounds were brought into Montgomery County in case the gunmen were found to have abandoned the seized auto.

Major Cecil Underwood, commanding officer of the State Patrol, rushed to the scene to take command of the search.

Underwood said the troopers and the deputy were conducting a routine license inspection at the road block, a regular procedure adopted in an effort to cut down the weekend highway death toll.

The three gunmen drove up, Underwood said, and the driver exhibited an out-of-state driver's license. Before the officer had an opportunity to examine the license closely, the three drew guns and ordered the officers to raise their hands.

Descriptions of two of the men tallied almost exactly with the two gunmen who robbed the Myron E. Freeman and Bro. store at 3001 Peachtree Rd., NE, at 11 a.m. Friday. They added the third occupant of the car could have waited in a getaway car in the Atlanta robbery and thus escaped notice here.

The bandits who held three employes of the Buckhead store at bay while they looted three jewelry trays evidently had kept the store under surveillance for two days, Atlanta detectives said.

Apparently the bandits were more interested in jewelry than cash, the detectives said. They took a tray of 16 diamond watches, a tray of 26 diamond engagement rings and a third tray of 26 diamond ensembles, but discarded a $400 bank deposit which one of the employes was carrying.

It was the largest such robbery here in two years. The Jefferson Jewelry Store at Five Points was robbed in September, 1953, of an estimated $50,000 in gems. Two gunmen were arrested later in an attempted jewelry store robbery at Memphis, Tenn., and were indicted by a Fulton County grand jury in connection with the Atlanta robbery.

The two bandits apparently had carefully planned the holdup, Det. B. G. Holland said. He said one appeared at the store Wednesday and told an employe, Mrs. G. M. Phillips, of 4900 Northside Dr., NW, he wanted to see a watch.

The man selected a watch and said he would be back to pick it up after he was paid on Friday, Mrs. Phillips said.

On Thursday, Mrs. Phillips said, the second man came in and looked at the same watch. He left after saying that if his buddy did not take the watch he would.

Friday both of them returned. Mrs. Phillips said the taller of the two assured her he had a good credit rating, asked about terms and then said: "This is a stickup."

Mrs. Phillips said she jumped back at the sight of the gun and that the gunman apologized: "I didn't mean to frighten you."

H. T. Cook, of 981 Northcliff Dr., NW, who was sitting at the front of the store repairing watches, was ordered to raise his hands and accompany Mrs. Phillips to a back room.

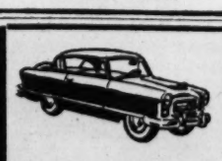

Mrs. Thomas Cassels, of 2553 Dellwood Dr., NW, who had started out with the bank deposit, was instructed to sit down in a chair. Holland said one bandit took the deposit, but placed it on a counter and evidently forgot it.

The two donned gloves while searching through the safe and cash drawers, Holland said. He added one called to the other who was gathering up trays of diamonds: "Get it all, Hank."

Then, turning to the employes, he said:

"You can't imagine how hard up we are."

Telephone Numbers Change

Here are some things you'll want to remember about Atlanta's telephone service:

1. Effective Sunday at 2:01 A.M., about 65,000 Atlanta telephone numbers will be changed.

2. Eight offices will have new names. Offices to be changed and their new names are as follows:

Present Office Name	New Office Name
MAin	MUrray 8
RAymond	PLaza 3
AMherst	PLaza 5
FRanklin	PLaza 8
CAlhoun	POplar 1
FAirfax	POplar 7
BElmont	SYcamore 4
OFficial	MUrray 5

3. The new MElrose 4 office goes into service. More than 3,000 subscribers now being served through existing offices will have MElrose numbers.

4. The new numbers will consist of an office name plus a key numeral followed by four numerals. Dial the first two letters of the office name, as you are now doing, followed, however, by the key numeral and four numerals.

5. When placing a Long Distance call from a telephone having the new type number, be sure to give the operator the office name, the key number and four numerals when she asks for your number.

6. The easy way to say . . . and remember . . . a two-letter, five-numeral telephone number is to break it up like this: Plaza three . . . nine-nine . . . nine-nine (PLaza 3-9999).

7. To avoid wrong numbers it is important that you use the new directory for all calls after 2:01 A.M. Sunday. Dispose of the old directory.

Army Ready To Enlist Men in 6-Year Reserve

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Army announced today that enlistments will be accepted immediately for the new six-year reserve training program.

The announcement also said the Army will be ready to take volunteers for the six months training plus 7½ years in active reserves phase of the new program in the "immediate future." Officials have said this means about Oct. 1.

Six-year enlistments directly into the reserves are open to youths of 17 and over who have not received a draft induction notice. Those accepted must serve two years on active duty, three years in the ready reserve and one year in the standby reserve. Enlistees will be permitted to serve their two years on active duty anytime they choose within the whole period.

The new 6-months training program, for which the Army is preparing now, will be open to volunteers 17 to 18½ years of age. These short term trainees will be paid $5 a month for the six months, and then must spend 7½ years in the ready reserve, which requires regular training.

Volunteers for this program will be deferred from the draft throughout the eight years so long as they take an active and satisfactory party in the reserve training. Otherwise they will be subject to a 2-year draft.

During their 7½ years in the ready reserve they must attend up to 48 weekly drills a year and serve up to 17 days of summer training a year. Or they may be able to choose instead to take 30 days full time training each year, dispensing with the 48 drills. They will receive one day's pay for each drill attended or day at camp. The rate of pay will be based on regular Army scales and will depend on rank and length of service.

High school students who volunteer may be deferred from the initial active duty training period until they complete their high school courses or until they reach age 20, whichever is earlier.

The Army plans to take 90,000 youths for this short term training during the 10 months ending next June 30 under a quota authorized by President Eisenhower last Saturday. The Marine Corps expects to take 5,500 during the same period.

The Navy and Air Force are not offering this type of training.

Wilson Tells Military To Harden GIs

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—Orders went out today to harden American fighting men for the ordeals of combat and captivity.

Secretary of Defense Wilson directed the military services to make a start by posting the new code of military honor "prominently" in every unit, ship and post throughout the world.

In training men to cope with an enemy both as fighters and possible prisoners of war, Wilson said it is essential that they be taught the "basic truths and advantages of our democratic institutions and the fallacies of communism."

The new military code, holding to the loftiest ideals of courage but recognizing that every man has a breaking point in the tests and trials of war, was proclaimed by President Eisenhower Wednesday.

It was drafted by a group of experts who drew heavily on the lessons learned by military personnel captured by the Reds in the Korean War and forced to endure torture and brainwashing.

Each branch of the service was directed to make its own detailed plans for educating its men. No time limit was fixed for the steeling process, but Wilson said that even before it starts each man should be "thoroughly grounded in the salient features" of the code.

$2 a Day Miner Boost?

British Atom Chief Says Plants In '70 Will Far Outmode Today's

GENEVA, Aug. 19 (AP)—Sir John Cockcroft, Britain's atomic energy chief, said tonight that development will be so rapid that the atomic power station of 1970 will make the present plants as out of date as a Model T Ford.

In an evening lecture, the British scientist also told the atoms-for-peace conference he has faith that the energy of the H-bomb eventually will be harnessed for peaceful uses.

Cockcroft said he could not predict when the fusion process of the H-bomb could be controlled. He said, however, that Britain is "working seriously on the problem" and "my faith in the creative ability of the scientist is so great that I am sure that this will be achieved long before it is essential for man's needs."

Speaking of the immediate future of atomic power development, Cockcroft said the next 10 years will be devoted to laying a sound foundation for the production of nuclear power from which it can expand until it becomes "the major power source of the world."

He said it would be a mistake to expect the cost of nuclear power to be cheaper than coal during the next decade, but he added there was "good reason to believe that in the second decade the cost of nuclear power will fall below that of power from coal and oil."

Speaking of the expected increase in the radiation level of the world in general, as a result of atomic development, he said investigations are already proceeding in Britain and the United States which should help decide what the maximum level should be.

"This may well be followed by international discussion of this problem," he said.

Cockcroft also called for a broader international cooperation in the whole atomic field, including steps to prevent diversion of atomic fuels "to explosive uses."

Vacationing Ike Rules Out All Snoopers

FRASER, Colo., Aug. 19 (AP) — President Eisenhower was represented today to have ordered a halt to any stopping along the highway on the part of newsmen and the public generally for a look at his vacation retreat.

Reporters learned about the order today from a Colorado state trooper who was patrolling the road in a car.

"You'll have to keep moving the trooper said. "Direct orders of the President. He doesn't want anybody along this road." The highway overlooks the Rocky Mountain ranch at which Eisenhower has been vacationing with his young grandson, David, since Tuesday.

Newsmen have been stopping opposite the ranch for a look at the vacation retreat. So have resorters and residents of the area. When the state trooper came along today the President was fishing for trout in a placid pond on the ranch. So was David.

U.N. To Ask Reds Return Downed 2

MUNSAN, Korea, Saturday, Aug. 19 (AP)—Demands that the Communists turn over a U.S. Army captain and an Air Force lieutenant they shot down in an unarmed training plane will be made by the U.N. Command at a full dress Military Armistice Commission meeting at 10 a.m. Sunday (8 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, Saturday.

This strongly indicated belief that the two men still were alive although there has been no official announcement since the Wednesday incident.

ASK URGENT MEETING

An Air Force spokesman said he had heard a Peiping broadcast reporting the two men were alive. But radio press monitoring facilities in Tokyo did not hear such a report on any of yesterday's Peiping casts.

The U.N. Command last night called for "an urgent meeting" of the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom. The Communists agreed.

In Washington the Pentagon identified the two men as Air Force 2nd Lt. Guy H. Bumpass Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Bumpass of Jackson, Miss., and Army Capt. Charles W. Brown whose wife, Agnes, lives at West Louisville, Ky, and whose father, Charles, lives at Clay, Ky. Bumpass piloted the plane. Brown went along as an observer.

BELIEVED PRISONERS

A U.N. Command spokesman said the two were believed to be Communist prisoners. He declined to elaborate.

Maj. Gen. Harlan Parks, senior U.N. member of the armistice commission, earlier told the Reds in a letter "Your trigger-happy gunmen . . . opened fire without provocation."

U.S. officials insist the training plane inadvertently flew over the United Nations side of the demilitarized zone but that it only crossed to the Red side after the Communist guns shot it down.

India Cuts Last Ties With Portugal

New York Times News Service
Special to The Atlanta Constitution

NEW DELHI, Aug. 19—India today broke her last diplomatic ties with the government of Portugal.

Prime Minister Nehru called his cabinet together this morning and a few hours later ordered the breaking of diplomatic relations as an expression of condemnation of the killing of Indian political volunteers in the Portuguese colony of Goa Monday.

All over India the struggle over the small colony on the West Coast—the last foreign holding on the subcontinent—has aroused passions and bitter feelings. These days Indians talk about little except Goa and the drive to make it part of the Indian union.

According to Indian official figures, at least 15 people were killed on Portuguese territory Monday. Ten others are missing and a "majority" of them are believed to be dead. Demonstrations against the killing of Indians who crossed unarmed into Goa turned into riots in Bombay and caused a closing of shops in New Dehli, Calcutta and Madras.

Indian opposition parties are trying to make as much political capital as possible out of Nehru's refusal to use force to take Goa. The Indian Communist Party today opened a harsh attack against Nehru and gave implied support to police action against the Portuguese forces in Goa.

The action taken today by the Indian government completed the process of severing diplomatic relations begun July 25 when New Dehli ordered the Portuguese legation in New Dehli closed. The Indians had closed their legation in Lisbon last year.

Competitive Bids Are Above Reproach

Atlanta is getting ready to move on its Municipal Airport improvement program.

City officials have indicated that bids soon will be asked on $2,000,000 in revenue certificates to finance part of the estimated $8,000,000 total cost. These improvements will include a new terminal building for passengers, new loading ramps for planes, and will be financed partly by federal grants.

The revenue certificates will be retired by income from airport operations, which includes income from the several concessions there.

Among these concessions is the taxi stand, for many years the exclusive property of the Yellow Cab Co. Yellow's grip on this franchise recently was broken by the Blue and Gray Cab Co. But the question of who will be the final victor yet is to be settled.

Exclusive contracts to provide public transportation from major airports is a fairly common thing. In Atlanta's case it is a profitable thing. According to city officials it should add about $40,000 to the airport's income this year.

Certainly the city should get as much money as possible from this as well as other concessions at the airport. This would indicate competitive, rather than negotiated, bids for these concessions.

Rightly or wrongly, negotiated bids automatically arouse suspicion, whether for cab franchises or revenue certificates. And indeed there have been many cases where this suspicion was justified.

U.S. Should Promote Arms 'Blueprint' Plan

The United States, according to reports, will propose President Eisenhower's plan for exchange of military blueprints and aerial arms inspection to the entire world through the United Nations.

The proposal, first offered to the Russians at Geneva on a reciprocal basis with the United States, electrified world opinion. It was one of the few real propaganda victories this country has won in the cold war.

Its obvious weakness was that it did not take into account that other nations have nuclear weapons, too, and did not spell out definite disarmament proposals. Its chief appeal was that it would make a surprise atomic attack more difficult, lifting some of the fear that now exists.

One thing the United States and Russia both seem to agree upon. No one could win a nuclear war. Even though a surprise attack might cripple this nation, the resulting retaliation would also make a shambles of Russia.

The Eisenhower "peace offensive" obviously is having some effect, if none other than to dull the edge of the constant peace barrage coming from Moscow. The Reds have shown themselves more receptive to world opinion recently and this advantage must be exploited to the hilt.

Even though the Communists show no signs of giving up their objectives of world revolution and domination of all continents, their fear of hydrogen war seems real. It does, at least, offer the basis for negotiations that could prove fruitful. Even the Russian leaders must be aware that should the world stumble into a nuclear war there might be few survivors.

Dr. Libby Again Warns Of Shortage of Scientists

The shortage in the nation of scientists and engineers, a lack which keeps planners and defenders awake at night, was emphasized recently by an atomic expert.

Dr. Willard F. Libby of the Atomic Energy Commission told the National Education Association in Chicago that the shortage is of serious concern. He said only two per cent of students capable of earning doctor's degrees go on to attain the higher learning. He charged the teachers and school administrators to go back home and urge the good student on to full achievement.

Educators have not been unaware of that obligation, but the fulfillment does not come as readily as recognition.

In the schooling of the masses, thus far there has been neither enough time nor money allotted to allow much attention to the individual student.

It was encouraging to note the number of boys applying for admission to the American Legion Boys State who indicated the chief interest in school as math and science. It would be comforting to think that each of those boys will be encouraged to develop himself to the limit in those fields.

That is not going to happen until public opinion properly appraises education, sees it as essential to security and progress and gives it support.

What the AEC scientist said in Chicago is a reiteration of what many others have said. Dr. Cherry Emerson, who retired last month as vice president of Georgia Tech, was saying it five years ago.

Dr. Emerson warned of the lag in scientific research and attributed it to a manpower shortage. He said, "All the money, laboratories and equipment are of no value without the proper brains to develop them. The only source of scientific talent is from our colleges. At present they are not being adequately aided in this most essential task."

He could have said the only source of scientific-engineering talent is our young people.

Americans have a tendency to conserve and develop every natural resource except the human. It would be well if we had more prospectors out with "Geiger" counters which detect talent. Uranium deposits are of little use without the brains that know how to put the atoms to work.

The Tragedy Is That The Code Is Necessary

The United States has promulgated a code of conduct for members of the armed services. It was proclaimed by President Eisenhower and is based on the experiences of prisoners of the Communists during the Korean War.

Basically, the code contains nothing new. It stresses the same kind of loyalty to the homeland and comrades in arms that the Spartans knew, the Romans professed and that good soldiers through history have known, whether they were fighting for ideals or for pay.

It points up Washington's alarm, though, at the number of American captives who have turned their coats in return for better treatment at the hands of their captors. It emphasizes the problem of these new Isaacs who trade their birthrights for pottage. It reminds us of the implacability of our new enemies, the Communists, and their evil techniques of brain washing.

A citizen army, made up largely of draftees, is bound to have its quota of men who fall short of the military ideal. It is saddening, nevertheless, to realize that the President has found it necessary to emphasize and publicize rules of conduct that good soldiers historically have taken for granted.

Cartersville School Fight Is an Unfortunate Affair

The city of Cartersville has been torn apart by a fight over operation of its school system. It apparently has been bitter, with high tempers inflaming into violence or near violence. It has attracted state-wide attention because of the intensity of the conflict.

The Constitution as a rule does not take sides in purely local political disputes outside of Atlanta. But, we do urge that Cartersville seek to settle the problem with as little ill will as possible. Certainly, as the news stories out of the town have indicated, some few persons have gone too far and have presented the community in an unfavorable light.

Cartersville is one of our favorite cities and its friendly people are among the best in Georgia. We urge them to get together and settle this dispute in an orderly fashion.

We agree with editor Ryan Frier of The Bartow Herald in Cartersville that the proper places for settlement of such disputes are the courts and the ballot box. And certainly nobody wants to destroy the schools for the "sake of winning a political point."

The incident is unfortunate and we urge all parties concerned to find a common ground and settle it.

Nation Joins in Salute To Bernard Baruch, 85

The Atlanta Constitution wishes to join the thousands of friends and admirers of Bernard M. Baruch in a birthday salute.

The nation's elder statesman is celebrating his 85th birthday. Aside from a slight limp left from a slip on a swimming pool rim while doing a back flip, Mr. Baruch is hale and hearty.

Mr. Baruch has given largely of his wisdom and energies. The nation and institutions have benefited from both. It is true, as Sen. Walter George said in his birthday greetings, that the statesman has "enriched many honorable lines of endeavor, both in business and in public affairs."

After all, 85 isn't so very old and we will hope to be on the receiving end of Baruch's wisdom for many years to come.

'East Point, College Park, Hapeville Drivers Are Violating State Law by Angle Parking'

Hapeville—I see where the City of East Point has purchased a speed trap to catch people who violate the law. My suggestion is to sweep clean in one place before you go anywhere else to sweep. I'm speaking about the angle parking (which is against the law). The state law says you shall not back into a main highway.

Then there's another way to look at it. The state law says the city shall have the jurisdiction over the angle parking. But, there's a little more to it. It says providing it doesn't cause a traffic hazzard. Therefore everyone of those people in College Park, Hapeville and East Point who angle park their cars are violating the law.

WCTU President Says Prohibition Was Good

Atlanta—Mr. Ralph McGill in his column tells how as a cub reporter he saw the "seamy side" of prohibition. There was a seamy side everyone agrees and evil always makes the headlines so a cub reporter would see the seamy side.

Every-day goodness seldom makes the headlines but prohibition had its good side. It brought an end to all liquor advertisements. It made the liquor business an outlaw like the thief and murderer. It greatly reduced crime, many jails were emptied, reduced highway accidents, greatly reduced drunkenness, cut relief rolls and lifted the moral standard of living.

These things a cub reporter would not see.

MRS. LUTHER DENT,
President Georgia WCTU.

Editor's Note: Prohibition also brought on gang rule of cities and such national crime rings as the Capone syndicate, the speakeasy, corruption of law enforcement officers, bootlegging and disregard for law and order.

'Administration Has Situation in Hand'

Athens — The few critics of Atty. Gen. Cook would do well to quit dragging their feet and start helping to pull for a change by offering ideas or suggestions as to how Mr. Cook can best go about upholding the Constitution of the State of Georgia; however, it is believed that our governing bodies have the situation well in hand and can continue to administer to the wishes of the majority of the people of this great State of Georgia.

The Rt. Rev. Randolph R. Claiborne Jr. is entitled to his opinion, right or wrong. However, his lone opinion is of the same value as any one of the thousands of pastors scattered over the state.

We have come a long way since the day of Henry Grady, the great and loyal Georgian, and we shall continue to grow in, by and with the same methods, customs and practices of freedom, liberty and independence, side by side, as separate as the churches, going in the same direction with the same goal in view.

J. ATTICUS WEBB.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat

Junket-Itch Afflicts Congress Every Year at This Time

With every congressional session's end, members break out with a rash of junket-itch—an affliction especially virulent among those not up for reelection and those pretty sure of easy victory. Junket-itch is a mental condition which assures the sufferer it is quite all right, if not desperately essential to the public weal, to use its money shamelessly for expense-paid "official" trips to the far corners of the earth. (One shudders to contemplate the consequence when space travel arrives.)

This year it might have been expected the lawmakers would be a bit shy of riding the taxpayers for pleasure jaunts. It has been only five months since they gave themselves a 50 per cent pay boost. Apparently, though, they mistook the people's recognition of their rising living costs for a signal that "anything goes."

So now they pack bags for what Washington observers call the biggest and most uninhibited outburst of tax-paid junketing the capital has seen in years. One group even is bent on "studying minimum wages" in poverty-stricken Puerto Rico. The cost of all will run to millions—millions taken from overlevied little earners who despair of ever seeing foreign climes, even at their own expense.

Nor are dollars the total tab; perhaps the least. United States relations abroad are forever delicate; this year unusually so, that Geneva's amity may not be jeopardized. The State Department makes not a move without careful consideration; spends every waking moment devising means to preserve tranquility between America and scores of diverse nations.

Then into this carefully nurtured scene American congressmen every year blunder, bull-and-china fashion, with their diplomatic inexperience, their personal prejudices and their proclivity for the off-the-cuff pop-off. Our trained, resident diplomats abroad, it has been said, helplessly greet the junketeers with anguished smile, then go secretly berserk at the diplomatic damage they do.

Perhaps some committee junkets are necessary. If so, let them be made during the regular session, when members will be obliged to convince their voters the urgency warrants their absence from Capitol Hill desks. The epidemic summer ones should be promptly junked. If not, perhaps the taxbound voters will someday rise to make it so.

Bill Ward, the subdivision and shopping center developer, is becoming a name, like "Diamond Jim" Brady and "Bet - a - Million" Gates. Perhaps it would be more apt to say that Ward is becoming the Cobb County William Zeckendorf. The idea is that if we were to establish interplanetary relations, Ward soon would be along to set up a super-trading post in outer space.

The story they're telling around Smyrna area is, when they told an old-timer that Bill Ward was going to build 500 houses in "that cow pasture at Belmont Stop," the old-timer said, "He can't do it!" Some months later, they said, "Had you heard that Bill Ward is going to build a $3,500,000 shopping center next to those 500 houses he built in that cow pasture?" The old-timer grunted, "He can't do it!"

More recently, they said, "Did you hear the latest about Bill Ward? He's going to move the county courthouse to Smyrna?"

"You don't say!" said the old-timer. "Where's he going to put it?"

Someone came along after I heard that to say it's the one they used to tell on Gene Talmadge and Stone Mountain. But I like it. And anyway it's been brought up to date.

Speaking of shopping centers, Hal Herrin, the former Cuthbert publisher, is now engaged in their promotion, that is, as an advertising and public relations consultant.

HIGHLINE: I believe August is the worst month in the whole year, although September may run it a close second, says a lady whose vacation is over and she can hardly stand the heat, especially when she has to be on the road part of the time. Her car, of course, is not air conditioned nor is her home and that is perhaps the reason, although we find neither is essential to a fair degree of comfort. —N. Y. Things Grandpa Did Are Now Lost Arts

TATE MOUNTAIN—I have been making a casual study of the human race here lately and I am getting a little discouraged with it. It has gotten so dependent on mechanical things that it has lost its basic capacity to survive. Like the other morning. Folks began to wake up around first light, yawning and stretching, and went into the bathroom to brush their teeth and turned the water on, and nothing came out of the faucet except air. There wasn't a drop of water on the mountain.

So people started running around all over the mountain with pans and coffee pots and buckets and empty milk bottles trying to borrow water from each other. Didn't occur to anybody, seems like, that the lake was full of the purest water in the world, and the little streams were full of it. We just figured, me included, that if it didn't come out of a pipe it wasn't water. And I guess if they hadn't fixed the pump we'd have just sat up here, unshaved, unwashed and dying of thirst. Grandpa never had running water in his house in his life, and he got along all right until he was well over 80 years old. Stayed clean-shaven too.

Lots of things Grandpa could do with his left hand leave this generation bewildered. Take a thing like hitching a horse up to a buggy. Even when I was coming along, a kid knew how to hitch up to a buggy, or a plow stock, by the time he learned how to tie his own shoes. But did you ever see a bunch of city kids trying to harness a Shetland pony to a little cart? It is the funniest thing you ever saw. Fellow down by the lake brought a pony and cart up here for his kids to play with and had to take his family back to town unexpectedly, so he told the other kids to take the pony out and drive him to the cart every day, so he'd get some exercise.

So they tried it. First place, they couldn't get the pony out of his stall for about an hour because he wouldn't open his mouth so they could get the bridle bit in. Finally, he got bored, and yawned, so they slipped the bit in and got the bridle on and led him out. Then they tried to get the harness on him. They had the crupper over one ear and the breeching up around his chest somewhere and the traces crosswise over his back, and the holding-back strap they didn't know what to do with so they just ignored it. Then they tried to back the pony between the shafts of the buggy. But the pony knew they didn't have his harness on right and he wasn't going to have any part of such foolishness. So he wouldn't back between the shafts. He just stood there.

So they figure, OK, we'll just slip the buggy shafts around him. So they pulled the buggy around behind the pony and tried to slip up on him. But he'd turn around right quick. Even they knew that a horse didn't go in the shafts head first. So they'd back up and pull the buggy around behind him again. And again he'd turn around and foil them.

This went on for about two hours. And the way I figure it, a couple of nice city ladies and a half dozen kids or so pulled that buggy for about four miles in the hot sun, getting more exercise than they'd had in years. And the pony hadn't pulled it the first inch yet.

Earliest Christians Opposed Authority

Christ had no home of His own. He had no wife with whom He might share His joys and His anxieties. He had no children to perpetuate His name. Yet, millions of homes have known great happiness, a spirit of contentment and the bonds of a unifying love because of Him and because of the lessons He long ago offered for successful human relationships.

But Christ did not promise that all of His followers would find happiness in their homes. Actually He said many would lose domestic tranquility because of Him. One of the disturbing passages of the Gospels is this: "I (Christ) came to cast fire upon the earth . . . Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division; for henceforth in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against her mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law" (Luke 12:49-53 RSV).

What do you make of words like these? And how do they compare with the angels' song with which Christ's birth was announced: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom He pleased!" (Luke 2:14).

As difficult as the scripture verse may sound, it is nonetheless true. The history of the early church is a witness to the fact that by embracing Christ's gospel many were turned from their homes. Those who dared to follow Christ were scoffed at by their families, then they were ridiculed, and often they were persecuted by those whom they loved. Christ said that a man's surrender to the Kingdom must take precedence over all other claims. Should Christianity take precedence over the normal claims of the human family? Christ said it should.

And that has been true in later times, too. Many a missionary has told how converts to Christianity are sometimes disinherited by families which clung to pagan ways.

But we don't need to read history or to listen to the experiences of missionaries. Many a home has been disrupted by a husband's impatience with a wife who feels that the church ought to have some claim on her time and effort and money and many a Christian parent has felt that the sinful behaviour of a child has weakened the bonds of love.

Christianity has been the greatest blessing to many homes but when there is an indifference or a hostility about the claims of faith there may be serious trouble.

Airplane Collisions Must Be 'In Flight'

"And where," said the managing editor to the reporter, "is midair?" The reporter hemmed and hawed. "Is it halfway up?" continued the M. E. This particular managing editor had a fixation concerning midair. When stories of airplane collisions came in, he always made sure the place of contact was made to read "in flight." He could stand for no happenings in midair.

That "midair" business is one of the things one runs into when attempting to put down the where, when and how of news events. Hurricanes also bring forth problems of prose. The late blows "Connie" and "Diane" with their deliberate movement along the coast almost ran the writers out of words. "Connie" one day was "wallowing" off North Carolina. A few hours later it was "dawdling." Frequently, while making up their minds, hurricanes are "poised." Once under way, they move "relentlessly," and when they hit land they come ashore "screaming," or "lashing," or "whipping," or "smashing," or "crashing," or "ripping."

Another air disturbance, the tornado, often brings problems of narration. Witnesses practically always declare they come upon a town "like a freight train." Once in a while a particularly fierce storm will sound like "two freight trains." Occasionally tornadoes drop in "like atomic bombs." Regardless of how they hit, they practically are sure to "smash a path of destruction" and leave "havoc in their wake."

Storms are not the only things of adjective woe. Ambulances always "rush" to the hospital. Police formerly were forever seeking "a black sedan" used by some malefactor. Now, with a rainbow of colors upon the road, the choice of pursued sedans is widened tremendously.

Lost children in wild areas frequently "wander in bear-infested woods." If they are lost in lowlands, they "wander in snake-infested swamps." Gunmen often "shove a pistol into the midsection" of their victim.

Infrequently something occurs "in the nick of time" and there is "method in the madness" of someone. And once in a while a female is "scantily attired" or "smart as a whip." Maybe both.

Trains carrying passengers practically always are "crack streamliners." There has never been an "un-crack streamliner." Aircraft frequently are "silvery giants."

Those things are run-of-the mill problems.

Often the wire services come clacking in with some story involving a woman who more than likely is "beautiful," "pretty," or "attractive." Following wirephotos bring the terrible truth. "Beautiful" turns out to be fairly easy to look upon, "pretty" often is downright plain and "attractive" is a sight.

But, as the coach says, "That's the way the ball bounces."

Tigers Buck Big Thursday

For what it's worth: Clemson alumni, weary of that annual pilgrimage to Columbia every third Thursday in October, are campaigning for establishment of the South Carolina football series on a home-and-home basis, to be played as the final game of the season. The stadium remodeling job that's to make room for the rising waters of Hartwell Dam gives them a good leg to stand on. . . . 1,350 people appreciate Andy Cohen in New Orleans. That's how many turned out this week for a "Manager Appreciation Night." . . . And whatever became of Rodger the Dodger?"

It is said that Otto Graham is undecided about returning to the Cleveland Browns, but a close associate overheard him say the night of the All-Star game that he'd join up after the exhibition with Los Angeles. . . . Seattle credits Gene Verble with delivering the most important hit of the season for Fred Hutchinson's Pacific Coast League leaders. It was a 12th-inning single Aug. 14 that supposedly broke the backs of the Hollywood Stars. . . . That Seattle experiment with a softball pitcher didn't work out. The pitcher, Bob Fesler, lasted two-thirds of an inning his one start and was socked for four runs in two relief innings. But 13,996 clients turned out to observe the noble experiment, which wasn't an entirely revolting development.

Bisher

Joe O'Malley apparently has it made as a defensive end with the Chicago Bears, h'isting the exhibition flag against the ChiCards Saturday night in Jacksonville. . . . The story behind the Alice and Bob Hagge divorcement has been shocking the golf people for several weeks. . . . As if to demonstrate his point, Bill Stern was almost killed in an automobile wreck just after he'd written a yarn about how much safer it is on a motorcycle.

Seems that they should have given Curly Lambeau and associates the College All-Star squad and a National League franchise and put him to work again. . . . Wonder if Confidential mag couldn't turn up some scandalous reason that hurricanes are snubbing Florida for the Carolinas? . . . Why they call it the beer capital: At the major league all-star game in July, Milwaukee fans consumed 60,380 bottles of suds.

—Most Dangerous .200 Hitter in Baseball

Franciso Eduardo Menendez, or Frank Mundy, leads the triple A stock car drivers on the year, and he can just about sew it up next week in the big 500-point feature at Milwaukee. . . . "Who's kidding who?" says Mundy. "Sure, race drivers get scared." . . . The latest odds on Swaps are 1-2 and Nashua 8-5 for the Aug. 31 match in Chicago.

One underlying reason for the Athletics' foldup in Philadelphia was a phenomenal streak of bad luck with the pitching property. Within a period of five years, the business arms of Bill McCahan, Dick Fowler, Phil Marchildon, Joe Coleman and Lou Brissie all went on the bum. . . . Now I hear that Ohio State may give expelled fullback Hubert Bobo one more chance after all. . . . And whatever became of Pat Harder?

The Yankees sent Jim Konstanty to Richmond with the idea of recalling him in September. But he'll have to be back by Sept. 1 to be eligible for the World Series. . . . On the matter of workhorses, Jesup of the Georgia State League had a pitcher in 1953 who appeared in 142 games in two seasons, one Cecil Hudson. Mustn't that be a minor league record? . . . Andy Cohen calls John Powers the "most dangerous .200 hitter in baseball." Another Pat Seerey in the cradle.

—The Manager Has To Be a Lady

Try this for an all-time Southern Association All-Ladies' Name team. . . . Shirley, Chattanooga-Nashville-Atlanta, first base; Mavis, Little Rock, second base; Polly, Birmingham, third base; Marion, Nashville, shortstop; Rose, New Orleans, left field; Hazle, Nashville, center field; Grace, Memphis, right field; Sady, Little Rock, catcher; and Besse, Knoxville-Memphis, pitcher. . . . And of course the manager by an overwhelming margin would have to be Ben Lady of Birmingham.

Mail Call: To Atlantan—Nashville farmed Bill Upton to Columbia where he's 6-3 for the season. . . . "After reading your column on Duster Twitchell, I wondered if you hadn't heard of the legendary Windmill Smith of the Yap's Gap Tigers? As I think of Windmill and his kind, I think I have the answer to what baseball needs. It's COLOR."—Frank Haile, Atlanta.

North Carolina's quarterback, Len Bullock, is getting some valuable training for the season. He's one of the players in that Indian pageant "Unto These Hills." . . . Ernie Oravetz, the Washington outfielder, is the only major leaguer I know who could put on a Davey Crockett T-shirt and get by the Knothole Gang gate. . . . When Cracker Clyde King's family joined him in town last week, first thing his four-year-old Princie asked was: "Are you still the manager, Daddy?" . . . Selah.

Roberts Hits 20 6th Time

Edges Newk And Brooklyn

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19 (AP)—Robin Roberts became the first 20-game winner of the season in the majors tonight, reaching the magic mark for the sixth straight year by besting Brooklyn's big Don Newcombe for the second time in six days as Philadelphia scored two times in the ninth to beat the Dodgers 3-2.

Roberts became the fifth pitcher in modern times to post 20 victories six consecutive years. The others are Lefty Grove, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson and Mordecai Brown.

It was Newcombe's error that allowed the tying run to score in the final frame, leaving runners on third and first. Willie Jones then followed with a single to left that sent the Dodger ace to his third straight defeat, and fourth of the season, after winning 18.

Newcombe had limited the Phils to two hits and had retired 15 men in order before the eighth. Granny Hamner clipped him for a two-out single in the first inning and Andy Seminick smacked him for a lead-off double in the third before Newk tightened the clamps.

Roberts, meanwhile, was tagged for a base knock in every inning until the sixth—only one of two frames in which he leveled the Brooks in order.

The Phils had Newcombe leaning in the eighth. Eddie Waitkus, Jim Greengrass and Seminick singled in succession to score Philadelphia's first run before Newk got anybody out.

Then Roberts grounded into a double play and Glen Gorbous popped out to give Newcombe a reprieve.

It was short-lived. Bobby Morgan led off the ninth with a double and Hamner, trying to bunt, blooped a single to right that sent Morgan to third.

Del Ennis then bounced back to Newcombe and the big righthander threw wild into center field trying to get a double play started. Morgan came home with the tying run on the play. Then Jones wrapped it up.

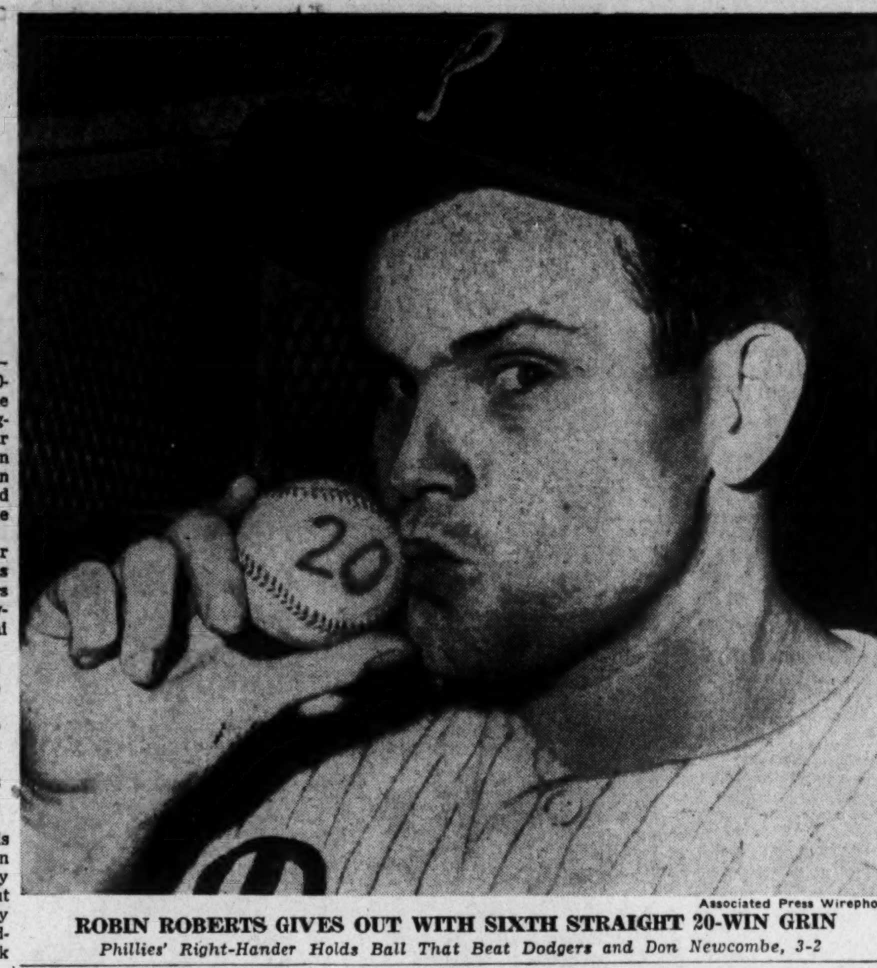

A crowd of 35,444, largest of the season at Philadelphia, sat in on the duel between the two hurlers.

Pierce Hurls 4th Shutout Over Tigers

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—Billy Pierce shut out the Detroit Tigers 3-0 tonight before a sweltering crowd of 36,473 to keep the second-place Chicago White Sox in the thick of the American League pennant race.

The little lefthander, backed by Walt Dropo's two-run homer, held the Tigers to six hits and allowed only one runner to reach third base.

In scoring his 10th victory and fourth shutout of the season, Pierce lowered his league-leading earned run average to 1.83.

Pierce, who has suffered four of his eight losses by 1-0 scores, walked one man and had six strikeouts.

Yankee Ford Hands Baltimore 20th Blanking of Season, 8-0

Whitey Subdues Wildness, Wins 14th on Two-Hitter

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—Southpaw Whitey Ford, fighting his own wildness, allowed Baltimore just two hits in an 8-0 New York victory tonight as the Yankees maintained their American League lead.

Ford picked up his 14th victory of the season while walking seven batters and handing the Orioles their 20th shutout of the season—the highest number of whitewashes in the league.

The Yanks put the game away in the first inning, clipping righthander Jim Wilson for two home runs and nearly smashing three in succession.

Gil McDougald started the Bombers' attack by slicing his ninth homer into the right field seats. Yogi Berra powered a ball to the same general area, but the Orioles' Dave Philley made a leaping snare of the drive. Then Mickey Mantle stepped up and smashed his 31st home run off the third deck.

Mossi and Narleski Rescue Indians, 2-1

CLEVELAND, Aug. 19 (AP)—Saved again by the sensational relief pitching of Don Mossi and Ray Narleski, the Cleveland Indians beat the Kansas City Athletics 2-1 tonight on 11th-inning singles by Hal Naragon, Ralph Kiner and Dale Mitchell.

Mossi and Narleski pulled the Indians out of deep trouble in the 10th with flawless pitching performances.

With the score tied 1-1, Enos Slaughter opened the 10th with a double off Indian starter Mike Garcia. Elmer Valo followed with an infield single. Slaughter took third on a wild throw to first by shortstop George Strickland.

Mossi came in and struck out ex-Indian Harry Simpson.

Narleski came in and fanned Hector Lopez and got Jim Finigan to end the inning by grounding into a forceout.

Narleski retired the As in order in the 11th, getting two men on infield popups, and one on an outfield fly.

Cleveland's winning run came in the 11th off Tom Gorman, who had entered the game in the fourth inning, relieving starter Vic Raschi. Raschi withdrew complaining of a catch in his shoulder.

Sullivan Stops Nats For 15th Victory

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP) — Frank Sullivan held Washington to six hits tonight to register his 15th win as Boston mauled three pitchers for 13 hits and an 8-0 victory over the Senators. Sammy White crashed his eighth homer in the sixth inning to snap a scoreless pitching duel between Sullivan and Bob Porterfield, the loser.

The Red Sox chased Porterfield with a four-run outburst in the seventh inning and added three runs off Dean Stone in the eighth.

Swaps Girds for Nashua In American Derby Run

Ellsworth Colt Favored to Whip Parador, Traffic Judge at Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—The sensational Swaps, who this year has beaten every sophomore of note, including Nashua, aims for an $89-600 jackpot in the American Derby Saturday and his eighth straight triumph.

Five courageous challengers will go against the California comet in the mile and 3-16 grass course feature for 3-year-olds at Washington Park.

Post time is 5 p.m. EST and the race will be televised and broadcast by CBS.

Trying to upset the 3-5 favorite will be Harvey C. Fruehauf's Parador, Clifford Mooers' Traffic Judge, Hasty House Farm's Summer Solstice, W. L. Ranch's Honey's Alibi and Mrs. Harry Nathenson's Ambiguous.

If a field of six goes to the post, the fixture will gross $146,425 with a winner's share of $89,600.

In 33 starts in his career, Swaps has 10 victories and two shows. He has won $349,900 for his owner, Rex Ellsworth.

The 45th running of the American Derby will mark the Khaled-Iron Reward colt's first competitive appearance on a grass course.

However, he has been spectacular in workouts on the sod, capping preparations by stepping five furlongs yesterday in :57 2-5, nearly two seconds under the American turf record for that distance.

The forecast for tomorrow is for clear hot weather, ideal for a shot at the American turf mark of 1:54-3-5, for a mile and 3-16 set recently by Platan in winning the Arlington Handicap. The Washington Park record is 1:54 4-5, by Volcanic, four years ago.

Swaps, packing 126 pounds, will spot 7 pounds to Traffic Judge and Parador and 13 to Ambiguous, Summer Solstice and Honey's Alibi.

The American Derby is Swaps first objective in drawing a bead on nearly $200,000 in his Chicago appearance. He is scheduled for a $100,000 winner-take-all match race Aug. 31, on Washington Park's dirt track with Nashua, whose only loss was to Swaps, in the Kentucky Derby.

Summer Solstice, Parador and Traffic Judge must be given a chance to upset Swaps tomorrow, which, if accomplished, would take the edge off any showdown with Nashua, to say the least.

The Irish-bred Summer Solstice will get a break in the weights and already has won three grass events this summer. Carrying 124 pounds, he finished third to Parador and Ambiguous in the American Derby preview at a mile and one-sixteenth Saturday.

Walker Only Lion To Win

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 19 (AP). Rookie Ted Wegert dashed 83 yards for one touchdown and scored another on a seven-yard end run tonight to carry the Philadelphia Eagles to a tight 14-8 victory over the Detroit Lions.

Wegert took the headlines on Doak Walker's night—the night the Southern Methodist immortal played his last game before the home folks.

Walker, who received a $10,000 Cadillac from Southwestern fans in a halftime ceremony, played an ordinary game for the Lions.

He caught several passes from Bobby Layne, but never could score and even failed to kick a point after touchdown, long a Walker specialty, although it was no fault of his own. The try was blocked.

Philadelphia	0	7	7	0	—14
Detroit	6	2	0	0	— 8

Scoring—Philadelphia: Touchdown, Wegert 2 (83-yard run with screened pass, 7-yard run on pitchout); conversions, Walston 2; safety, Burt (intentionally grounded pass in end zone).
Detroit: Touchdown, Tipps (2-yard plunge).

Crackers Win In 12th, 2-1

Thompson Outduels O'Reilly; Brown's Error Decides Game

By JESSE OUTLAR
Constitution Sports Writer

BIRMINGHAM, Aug. 19—Playing their sixth extra-inning game in seven days and playing as though the pennant were at stake, Atlanta's Crackers and Glenn Thompson edged Birmingham, 2-1, Friday night in a 12-inning thriller.

You'd never have guessed that Clyde King's men were 20 games off the pace and that a defeat would have officially eliminated them from the race.

They battled the Barons as though this one would decide the entire season and, in the end, Thompson was one run better than Jim O'Reilly.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION PEACH SPORTS

The strapping Cracker righthander and the slim Baron southpaw conducted a furious duel that kept the 4,063 ladies night customers in an uproar all the way.

Both clubs received one gift run, otherwise Thompson would have won it, 1-0, in nine. Ex-Cracker Country Brown handed the Crackers their winning margin when he dropped Earl Hersh's two-out fly in the 12th. Frank DiPrima, who had doubled with two away, winged home with the winning marker as the ball ozzed out of Brown's glove. Dick Sinovic, purposely passed after DiPrima's hit, tried to score from first on the error, and was cut down by Jerry Lumpe's relay throw.

Brown had a chance to shuck off the Goat's Cloak in the Baron 12th, when he came to bat with two down and runners perched on second and first. But Thompson got Brown on a game-ending fly to Bob Thorpe.

The Southern Association strike out king fanned 11, as he went past the eight-inning mark for the first time since May 18. He had control of his fast ball — five walks — and the Barons all the way.

Ordinarily a studious hurler, Thompson put it on for the fans. He joked with his teammates and the Barons and was, as they say in baseball, "loose as a goose."

It was Thompson's best performance since he blanked Houston, 1-0, in the Dixie Series last fall. Nothing short of his stellar effort would have pinned O'Reilly with his sixth defeat.

The Baron lefty fanned 13 men, and Hersh was five of 'em. The five straight whiffs, before he skied to Brown, gave Hersh the unbelievable distinction of equalling a league record.

Thompson was nicked for nine hits, one more than the Crackers gleaned off O'Reilly. However, the only Baron run was unearned.

Dic Sinovic had put the Crackers out front with his No. 17 homer into the left-field seats with one out in the third. The Barons then produced a 1-1 snarl, which existed till the 12th, when Jack Parks threw wild into center, opening the gate for a run in the fourth.

Brown had opened the round with a walk and pulled up at second after Tom Hamilton singled, setting up a successful double steal. When Parks overshot second with his throw, Brown came on home and Hamilton pulled into third. He was stranded there as Thompson fanned Bob Martyn and Buddy Carter and retired Al Pilarcik on a ground-out.

After Sinovic's third-inning homer, O'Reilly limited the Crackers to a mere single for the next six innings. Singles by DiPrima and Sinovic broke the spell in the 10th, but Hersh went down swinging for the fifth time to spike the bid.

Thompson never allowed the Barons two hits in one inning and all nine of their safeties were singles.

The Crackers missed a scoring

Paul Stuffel Rips Bears For Ninth '55 Triumph

New Orleans Edges Travelers; Chattanooga Blasts Nashville

By the Associated Press

Veteran righthander Paul Stuffel notched his ninth victory Friday night with a five-hitter as Memphis took its second straight from Mobile 5-1. Leo Wells homered for Memphis in the second inning with one on. The victory cut Birmingham's Southern Assn. lead to 4½ games.

Chattanooga erupted for two runs in the seventh inning and five in the eighth to beat the Nashville Vols 8-2. Bob Ross posted his eighth victory for the Lookouts. He struck out 10 Vols and scattered eight hits.

New Orleans clung to third place in the close scrap with Chattanooga by downing the tail-end Little Rock Travelers 6-4. Roger Sawyer, the winning pitcher, had to have help in the ninth from Erv Dusak and Chuck Churn when the Travelers threatened. Andy Frazier homered for Little Rock.

Rodgers Soars to 76 Card, But Holds Lead in JC Play

Iowan Rule Trails Californian by Two Strokes; Ware and Eldridge Tied for Fifth With 217s

By BERT PRATHER
Constitution Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Aug. 19—Phil Rodgers, stocky 17-year-old San Diego, Calif., swinger, shot a 4-over-par 76 over the Columbus Country Club course Friday to retain his lead in the 72-hole International Jaycee Junior golf championship with a 54-hole total of 66-70-76—212.

Phil, who started the day with a three-stroke lead over Sam Carmichael of Martinsville, 136 to 139, still holds a two-stroke lead over new runner-up Jack Rule of Waterloo, Iowa, who tacked a 73 onto his previous rounds of 70-71 for a three-round total of 214.

Carmichael meanwhile skidded to an 81 Friday for a score of 230, eight strokes back as the field heads into Saturday's final pressure-packed 18.

Running third and rated a good bet to move in if the front runners slip over par Saturday was Deane Beman, 17-year-old Bethesda, Md., ace who has been playing the most consistent golf of the tournament with rounds of 67-73-73 for a 215.

Moving up into fourth place and looking more dangerous all the time was 17-year-old Allen Geiberger, the defending champion from Santa Barbara, Calif., with 72-71-73—216.

But most heartening to the homefolks was the fine play of Cobby Ware of Augusta, and Frankie Eldridge of Valdosta. The two Georgians were deadlocked for fifth place at 217 with Dick Foote of Santa Ana, Calif.

Eldridge's card reads, 72-70-75—217, Ware's 70-74-73—217.

Rule stayed with the card on all but three holes in fashioning his 37-36—73. He sank a 15-footer on No. 5 for a birdie deuce and trapped his second on 6 and tangled with the trees on the seventh for bogies on each.

For the second straight day, pinsetter Charlie Harper had the course playing tight and as a result not a single player of the 100 remaining in the field broke par 72 and only five of them equaled it. Of the leaders not a single one equaled regulation.

Rodgers was having trouble controlling his tee shots Friday, registering three bogies, one double bogie and one birdie on the front nine for a 40. He steadied on the back nine for an even par 36, losing a stroke to the card on the par four 15th and getting it back with a birdie on the long 17th.

Ware made a great start, coming out of the trap and sinking a 12-footer for a birdie four and sinking one from equal distance for a bird on par-four second.

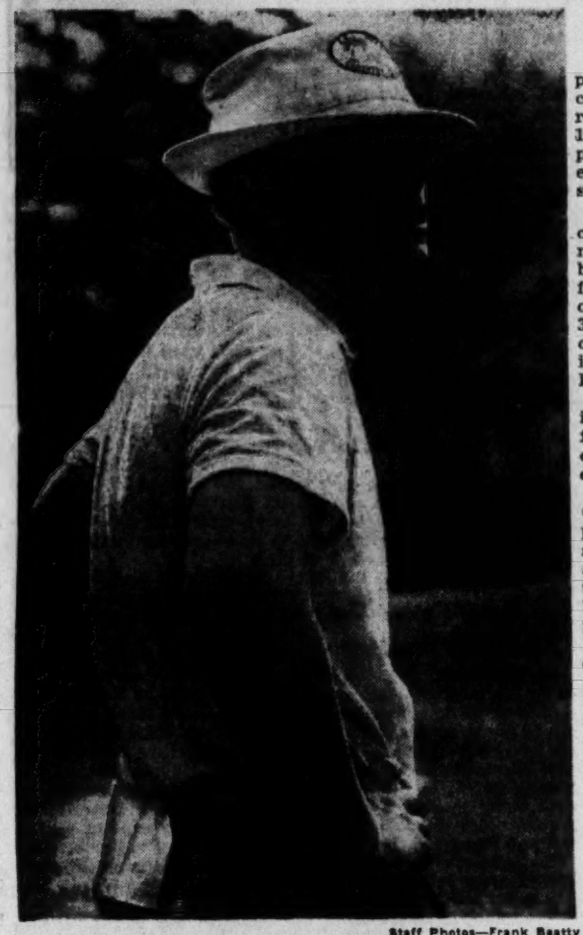

On the par-three fifth, Cobby, the Georgia junior champion, three putted. He also bogied six and seven with fives, but saved a par at eight by sinking a 15-footer and then got down one from 18 for a birdie deuce at nine to turn in even par 36. He knocked his second six inches from the pin on 10 for a birdie three but got in the rough on the four par 12th to lose a stroke. He also trapped his tee shot on the short 14th to take a bogey four. He made the next four in par for a 37 and 73, tying with three others for the days second best round.

Eldridge was out in 38 and back in 37 for his 75. He started with a birdie four, being on in two. Frank overshot the green on No. 2 for a bogie and three-putted No. 3. He missed the greens on seven and 10 to take bogie fives. He got one of these back by sticking his approach up two feet from the flag for a birdie three at 12.

He hit a tree and for a six on 13, missed the short 14th for a double bogie five, then birdied 17 and 18. He was on the former in two and down in two. At 18 Eldridge sank a tough 10-footer for his three.

Bill Adams of Valdosta and John Dekle of Statesboro were well out of the running. Dekle has a 75-80-79—234, while Adams carded 72-75-76—223.

In the event the tournament winds up in a tie there will be an 18-hole play off Sunday. The only other time the championship ended in a tie, Jimmy Raines of Augusta was the playoff winner.

Sharp Pitches Knowles To City Softball Title

Knowles Electric wired itself to the city softball championship Friday night at Piedmont Park on the strength of Bob Sharp's 7-4 three-hit victory over Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Bill Parker opened the scoring with a pair of bases-empty home runs in the first and third innings, and Mac Harmon sparkplugged the team through the final frames with a clutch catch and a two-run triple.

With the bases full in the sixth, Harmon hauled in a fly ball and threw from right field to home plate for an inning-ending double play. And his triple with two men on in the seventh sealed the Eagles' doom.

A crowd of 750 onlookers watched Knowles stretch its lead to 5-0 in the top of the fourth when singles by Harmon, Sharp and J. T. Roberts, plus Parker's sacrifice fly and Bill Thorn's fielder's choice grounder, added three tallies.

But grounders by manager Charlie Freeman and Frank Westmoreland and a single by Jim Parham drove in three Eagle runs in the bottom of the same stanza, trimming the bulge to 5-3.

Knowles' victory gives the Johnny Moon-managed club a berth in the Southern Regional Tournament of the American Softball Assn., to be held Sept. 12-16 at Clearwater, Fla.

YAWATA, Japan, Aug. 19 (AP)—Reid Patterson, former University of Georgia All-American, won the 100-meter freestyle and anchored two winning U.S. relay teams here Friday in leading the Americans to a victory over Japan's top swimmers.

The lanky Kentucky native swam the 100 in :57.4 seconds and then swam the anchor lap of the winning 400-meter medley and 200-meter relay teams.

In addition to the two relay victories, the United States swimmers won four individual firsts in comparison to three for Japan.

Clemente Aids With Homer As Left-Hander Takes Loss

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates shook off the effects of early homers by Johnny Antonelli and Willie Mays tonight and hammered Antonelli and two successors for an 8-3 win over the New York Giants before 9,695. Roberto Clemente homered for the Pirates.

Antonelli's homer in the third inning was his second of the season. Mays followed in the same frame with No. 38.

Pittsburgh came back with a run in the third and took the lead for good in the fourth after the Giants scored their final run in the top half of that frame.

The oddity in the sixth came as Giant Manager Leo Durocher sought to replace relief pitcher Paul Giel, when Giel had pitched only three balls to Dick Cole. Giel was already on his way to the showers and reliefer Don McCall on the hill when the situation was discovered.

The rules require a relief pitcher to dispose of at least one batter. Giel came back, walked Cole to force in a run and then resumed his interrupted journey out of the game.

Burdette Blanks Chicubs on 6 Hits

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 19 (AP)—Lew Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves shut out the Chicago Cubs 7-0 on six hits tonight before a near capacity crowd of 41,560. Del Crandall and Henry Aaron led the Braves' attack with two-run homers.

The victory enabled the Braves to whittle Brooklyn's first place margin to 13 games as the Dodgers dropped a 3-2 decision to Philadelphia.

Burdette won his ninth game against six losses. It marked his first win since July 27 and his first complete game in his last seven starts.

Hendrix, Stephens, Duffey Lead Big Roosevelt Line

Smith, Butler, Tinnermon To Ramble Behind Forewall Averaging 190 Plus

By CHARLIE ROBERTS

Don't look for miracles from the Roosevelt High football team, but don't look for a pushover when Coach Red Emmert's Tide is the foe either.

The Auburn redhead won't be able to shoot a great passer at opponents the way he could last year when he had Ted Moseley. But he'll have one of the finest fullbacks in Georgia in 190-pound Charlie Smith. And there won't be any patsies in that Tide line that will average about 190-pounds per man even when 265-pound Lynn Stephens isn't in there.

P. D. Hendrix, who weighs 190 now, didn't have many superiors at tackle last year. Lewis Harrison will give him 185 pounds of support on the other side and big Stephens, rugged and fast for his size and the team's "morale boy" because he "can go all day," will be headon with some luckless lad when the Tide's on defense.

Clarence Duffey (170), who played virtually every minute of every game during last year's campaign, and Dwight Smith, fastest Roosevelt lineman despite his 205 pounds, will man the guards. Larry Chandler (155), who made now-graduated Bill King battle for playing time in 1954, will be at center. He's an exceptional blocker.

Ted Leahy and Fred Rice are gone at end, but Jack McElreath (150), and Raymond Summers (160) show promise at the flanks. And Tommy King, 6-2, 170 and a transfer from Carriere, Miss., is rugged and swift, only lacks experience.

Mosely and Jimmy Bennett are about the only sorely felt losses in the backfield. Charles Butler, with two years of extensive experience, and Truman Burton, a soph with great possibilities, will share the quarterbacking. Neither can throw like Moseley, but Butler is a fine runner. Burton will punt and boot extra points. Both figure to be able split-T operators.

Edward Tinnermon (155), a regular last year until he broke a shoulder in the Fulton game; Joe Collins (145) and Buck Fitzgerald (145) saw much action last trip and will do much of the halfbacking this time. Tinnermon is expected to be one of the better ball luggers.

Smith? Barring injury, pestilence or flood, the big boy won't have to doff his headgear to any of those around.

Emmert and aides Art Hagan, C. W. Ward, Jack Glasgow and Fred Kersey figure this should be a better Tide than the one that finished 5-5 in the won-lost column last outing.

opportunity in the first when, with the bases loaded and two out, Umpire Bob Burns called Parks out on a bum decision at first. King and Parks put up a loud beef, but Burns had the last word.

Weary from their busy week of overtime squables' the Crackers will close out the 1-1 series with Bill George (9-12) attempting to break a personal eight-game losing skein Saturday night. Phil Terry (7-1) will hurl for the league leaders.

CRACKER DIARY: No one can accuse the Crackers of being lackadaisical about their work these days. You'd have thought they had moved into first place by the manner in which they were whooping it up in the clubhouse after Friday's 2-1 squeaker . . . Big Glenn Thompson, busy shaking hands with his jubilant mates, took time out to explain his clowing antics. "I just decided to have some fun," Thompson said. "So I kidded the Barons, and our gys all the way." . . . Maybe Thompson has been trying too hard, for Friday's masterpiece was one of the finest of his career. It was also his second straight extra-inning triumph, having decisioned Nashville in eight innings of the short game in Nashville last Sunday.

Palmer's 21-Under Leads in Canadian

Cards 64 in Third Round; Burke Next With 200 Total

TORONTO, Aug. 19 (AP)—Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., making his first bid this season on the pro tournament circuit, shot a dazzling 64 today for a three-round total of 195 to lead the field in the Canadian Open golf championship.

Superlative approach shots and accurate drives built up a remarkable game for last year's U.S. National Amateur champion and gave him a five-stroke bulge over the field.

Closest to Palmer was Jack Burke Jr. of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., who fired a 67 for a 200 total.

Palmer now is 21 strokes under par, a record for any three rounds in the 46-year history of the tournament.

Palmer threatened to make it a runaway, starting out today with a two-stroke lead.

Burke, despite his five-under-par 67, is three strokes worse off than he was when the halfway mark was reached yesterday.

It was a case of perfection golf by Palmer. He rolled up a string of nine birdies and went over par only at the 235-yard par three 11th when his drive was to the right and he pitched short.

Freddie Hawkins of St. Andrew's, Ill., and Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., were tied for third place with 202, seven strokes behind Palmer.

At 205 was Mike Souchak of Grossinger's, N.Y., and at 206 Jerry Barber of Los Angeles.

Stan Leonard of Vancouver, falling off to a par 72 for the first time, was bracketed at 207 with Marty Furgol of Lemont, Ill.

Leadership for low amateur honors changed, Scotty Fraser of Panama City, Fla., who shot a 69 for a 209 total, passing Eric Hanson of Toronto, who now has 216. Moe Norman of Kitchener is closest to Fraser with 215, helped by a two-under-par 70.

Low 20 scores after 54 holes: Arnold Palmer, 131-64—195; Jack Burke Jr., 133-67—200; Fred Hawkins, 137-65—202; Art Wall Jr., 136-66—202; Tommy Bolt, 134-69—203; Mike Souchak, 136-69—205; Jerry Barber, 134-72—206; Dave Douglas, 135-72—207; Marty Furgol, 137-70—207; Stan Leonard, 135-72—207; Al Mengert, 139-68—207; Doug Ford, 139-69—208; Bud Holscher, 137-71—208; Mike Fetchick, 136-72—208.

Gerry Keserling, 140-69—209; Charlie Sifford, 137-72—209; Jimmy Clark, 139-70—209; Bob Schoener, 138-71—209; Buster Reed, 137-72—209; Scotty Fraser, 140-69—209; Bill Mawhinney, 145-65—210; Ed Oliver, 143-67—210; Bob Rosburg, 138-72—210; Bill Carper Jr., 142-69—211; Don Whitt, 143-68—211; Ted Kroll, 142-69—211; Fred Wampler, 141-70—211; Bo Wininger, 139-72—211; Buddy Weaver, 139-72—211; Al Balding, 144-68—212; Bill Nary, 141-71—212; Ed Furgol, 139-73—212; Sam Snead, 137-75—212; Henry Martell, 137-75—212.

DICK DONOVAN READY TO HURL AS WHITE SOX SEEK PENNANT

CHICAGO, Aug. 19 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees bounced around on the American League baseball peak for a spell Thursday, but Friday the Bronx Bombers are on top by five percentage points.

DICK DONOVAN

A 6-2 triumph over Kansas City in the first game at Comiskey Park put the White Sox in first place by 2/10,000ths of a point, which is cutting it about as thin as you can percentage-wise. The Yanks' game at Boston was rained out.

Two hours and 47 minutes after the Sox took over first place they succumbed to the Athletics in the nightcap, 5-3, and slipped back into second place.

Marty Marion got good news yesterday when Dick Donovan, after pitching batting practice for the second time since his appendectomy, told Marion he's ready to take the mound.

As a result, the big right hander who had won 13 and lost four before his operation downed him, will pitch in Sunday's double header against the Tigers.

"This really is good news," said Marion with a grin. "Keegan (Bob) comes back to us tomorrow. He'll pitch tomorrow against Detroit. We're all hoping Dick and Bob will pitch like they have in the past."

Of the remaining 39 Sox games, only 14 are against first division rivals. Four each remain with New York and Boston and six with Cleveland. Fourteen of the 20 games left on the Chicago home schedule are against second division opponents.

A favorable schedule in the next 11 games against second division foes makes this an ideal time for the White Sox to make their big move—if they're going to make one.

Rally Pushes Church Music Improvement

The fourth annual Baptist Music School ended this week at the West End Baptist Church after studying ways to "improve church music.

One of the main considerations of the meeting was to simplify church music.

"We can do this and still maintain the dignity that is imperative to good church music," said Dr. Paul McCommon, director of the school.

He added that the use of available talent, such as instrumental music, orchestration and song leading, was very important to the improvement of church music.

The meeting closed Friday night when members of the classes presented an Oratorio, "A Christmas Mystery," by Lundquist.

Cup Stars Quit Nat'l Doubles

Fear of Injury Forces Move

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 19 (AP)—American and Australian Davis Cup representatives today dealt a major blow to the rain-drenched 75th National Doubles tennis tournament by withdrawing after Longwood officials announced further postponement of the event.

U.S. Davis Cup Capt. Billy Talbert pulled out the defending champions Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas—first seeded domestic entry—plus Ham Richardson and Gil Shea which spelled the end of two more teams.

Australians Rex Hartwig and Neale Fraser, top foreign seeds who were unable to contact Capt. Harry Hopman by phone immediately, toyed with Italian Giuseppi Merlo and Dick Gaines of Edgartown, Mass.—then defaulted at match point.

The pair won the first two sets easily 6-2, 6-2. They were leading in the third set 6-5 with the score 40-15 when they defaulted.

The announcement by Talbert and the action by the Aussies followed a statement from tournament chairman Lytton Dowson that play from the round of 16 on in the men's division as well as all remaining women's matches would be held up until the inundated courts had dried out completely.

Blassie Pins Red Berry

Fred Blassie, former Southern heavyweight wrestling champion won his first victory since coming to Atlanta several weeks ago Friday at the City Auditorium by pinning Wild Red Berry in 21 minutes.

In other feature matches Dizzy Davis won over Roy Shire in 12 minutes, Danno O'Shocker whipped Eddie Gossett in 16 minutes and Tokyo Joe and Andre Drapp fought to a 20-minute draw.

Blassie, who lost his Southern heavyweight title to Don McIntyre in a disputed decision last month, has agreed to drop court actions against McIntyre and settle the matter in the next Friday's main event at the City Auditorium.

Giants Threaten To Follow Bums, Seek 'Super Park' in New York

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—City officials were told today that both the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants may be forced to move from their present sites unless they are provided new parks.

Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers, issued the warning at an informal meeting with Mayor Robert Wagner and some of his aides.

O'Malley said unless a suitable new site for Brooklyn games is found by 1958 the club may move, with the Giants following suit.

"Personally, I believe this problem is bigger than the Dodgers alone," the Brooklyn executive said. "If anybody went, the two teams would go. But that doesn't mean we couldn't play in the general area."

Wagner, following an hour-long conference on his wind-blown riverside porch, promised the matter would be discussed by the Board of Estimate at its next executive session, probably next Wednesday.

O'Malley prodded city officials into action last Tuesday with the surprise announcement the Dodgers plan to play seven National league games next season in Jersey City, N. J., and would not continue to play in Ebbets Field after 1957.

The Giants projected themselves into the picture with a telegram from Horace C. Stoneham, club president.

Stoneham said the Giants had similar problems at the Polo Grounds, involving parking and seating, and suggested "a meeting on a more general basis."

O'Malley is eager to finance a new home for the Dodgers and is asking merely that someone provide a place. He added the club had $6,000,000 to put toward a 50,000-capacity stadium.

The Brooklyn boss insisted he preferred that the Dodgers remain in the borough but added: "There is a possibility the Dodgers will win the pennant. Our stockholders are willing to stand the gaff two more years. We will not play in Ebbets Field beyond that."

O'Malley received little consolation on a proposal to redevelop the Atlantic Avenue-Flatbush Avenue area under federal clearance — a site described by O'Malley as "our last chance in Brooklyn."

Robert Moses, city park commissioner who is chairman of the slum clearance committee, said he doubted approval could be obtained because the area "is not a slum area."

Stoneham, declaring the Giants also could use a new stadium, suggested that the city build a super park to house both the Giants and the New York Yankees. "Instead of helping us," he said, "everything the civic fathers have done in recent years has hurt us."

The Giants' lease on the Polo Grounds expires in 1962.

Man Who Charged Dropo Hit Son, Fined for Slugging Umpire

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 19 (AP)—A North Little Rock man who sued Walt Dropo and the Chicago White Sox for $25,000 last April on a charge that the big first baseman struck his teen-age son, was fined $28 today for slugging an amateur baseball umpire.

T. Tom Glover paid the fine in North Little Rock municipal court and promptly appealed the case to Pulaski circuit court. Charges of disturbing the peace against Glover and his 14-year-old son, Tom, were dismissed.

Police said the younger Glover was ejected from a Pony League game last night after protesting an umpire's decision too vehemently. The boy refused to leave the field, said police, and the elder Glover joined him from the stands. Officers charged that after a few words with the umpire, the elder Glover struck the official.

Glover filed the suit against Dropo and the Sox on a charge that Dropo struck and cursed his son after entering the stands at Little Rock's Travelers Field prior to an exhibition game to retrieve a foul ball. Dropo denied the charge. As result of the suit, the Sox have cancelled a scheduled exhibition game here next year.

Lovell Dogs Take It All Again at Hiawassee Fair

Gainesville Hunter Dents Sweep With First Place in Derby Class

By BILL ALLEN
Constitution Sports Writer

HIAWASSEE, Aug. 19—The Lovell fox hounds from the Soque Creek valley between Clarkesville and Lake Burton again swept all honors at the North Georgia Mountain County Fair Friday night.

It was the third year that old fox hunter Virgil Lovell and son Carlos showed the prime hounds of the mountain country.

A 23-month-old male named Saddler was ribboned as best hound in show and a 20-month-old, twinkled-toed, almost-white female called Linn was best of opposite sex.

Only dent in the solid Lovell front was made by J. D. Satterfield of Gainesville with a fine male hunter, Missouri's Pickett, a 20-month-old handsome derby that was judged best male derby hound. Pickett won the best natural carriage ribbon over all the hounds entered.

Best puppy was shown by Tom Thomas of Cleveland, Ga. The Lovells took second and Cecil Hawkins third in the youngsters event.

Following Satterfield in derby males were Carlos Lovell in second, V. L. Lovell third, and Roy Wilson, Marble, N.C., fourth. The Lovells won the derby female show, Hawkins was second and L. Davis of Dillard was third.

The Lovells won first with Saddler in all age dogs over Wilbur Mangus of Hayesville and H. G. Waldrip, also of Hayesville.

The Lovells and Mangus placed the same way with their all-age females and short Phillips, Hiawassee, was third.

Next field trial and big show for mountain fox hunters will be held near Cleveland at Clear Lake Lodge, Sept. 20, under the auspices of the Mount Yonah Fox Hunters Association.

The bureau reported consumption for the full 1954-55 crop season at 8,835,149 bales against 8,576,191 in the preceding season.

The U.S. cotton carryover on July 31, 1955, was officially placed at 11,120,739 bales, which was about in line with trade expectations.

Dry Goods

NEW YORK, Aug. 19 (AP)—The cotton textile market was quiet Friday with some fabrics continuing to show strength under the impetus of recent wage increases. A number of producers of sheetings increased these fabrics ¼ cent a yard, and others were withdrawn for re-pricing purposes. Dealers said that some mills sold substantial quantities of class "C" sheetings late Thursday, prior to moving higher.

Orders for wool goods were limited and came mostly from smaller clothing manufacturers. Reordering of cloth for spring and summer 1956 was not anticipated in volume until after manufacturers determine the response of retail representatives to the spring line showings starting late this month.

In rayon goods a lack of interest in finished goods discouraged buying of gray cloth.

Questions Answered

L. H. writes: Does the polio germ work suddenly or will a period of one or two years pass after exposure before symptoms appear?

Symptoms appear on an average of 14 days after exposure. The organism enters the body through the gastrointestinal tract and from there goes to the blood stream where it multiplies. This is the nonparalytic stage of polio; paralysis occurs if the causative virus leaves the blood stream and invades the nervous system.

C. D. writes: I have the most painful ailment known—neuralgia of the ninth, or glossopharyngeal nerve. The attacks come suddenly and last one to three months, during which time I cannot eat solid foods and my sleep is disturbed. Is there any hope of relief?

I agree that you have a most distressing disorder. Operation is recommended when other measures fail.

G. J. writes: Is it safe for a woman with chronic glaucoma to watch TV?

Yes.

Mrs. H. writes: What causes constipation in youngsters?

Laziness or failure of the parents to encourage a regular habit. I presume the children were examined and no physical reason for the condition was found. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on constipation in children.

F. T. writes: Is gout due to hardening of the arteries?

The two conditions co-exist but whether or not they are related is a moot question.

T. G. writes: Could angina pectoris be present without pain in the chest but with pain in the arms to the elbows?

Yes, but this is not the usual picture. In one of my patients, the earliest manifestation of angina pectoris in the beginning was aching in the little finger of his left hand whenever he walked up a certain incline.

E. R. writes: Does a liver biopsy mean an abdominal operation?

There are two ways of doing a biopsy. One is to insert a needle or a peritoneoscope through the abdominal wall to obtain a sample of liver tissue for examination. The second way is to take a bit of this tissue during an abdominal operation.

You and High Blood Pressure

Fighting Spirit Turns Loser Into a Winner

By PETER J. STEINCROHN, M.D.
Consultant and Former Chief of Staff, Mt. Sinai Hospital
CHAPTER XIII

Doctors have made great strides in preventing and overcoming illness. But we are not smug.

We are proud of the serums, vaccines, and antitoxins which have reduced such scourges as diphtheria, typhoid, and smallpox to the minor roles of unimportant disease. We are proud of the knockout blows that the sulfa drugs, penicillin, and streptomycin are leveling at the chins of the acute diseases like pneumonia, streptococcal infections, gonorrhea—and even syphilis.

In the face of all this, why are we still humble? Why do we still feel frustrated? We look at the statistics for chronic disease in the United States and realize that over 10 million persons are suffering from rheumatism. About nine million from cardio-vascular disease. At least the same number (probably many more) from high blood pressure.

MANY TYPES

On the one hand, we are proud; on the other, we are humble. Let us limit ourselves to heart disease and high blood pressure. The term "heart disease" is used loosely. There are many kinds of heart involvement.

Roughly, and quickly, there is congenital heart disease, in which there are structural defects in the heart itself. Arteriosclerotic heart disease, due to hardening of the arteries. There is heart disease due to infection by syphilis. The heart may be affected by either under- or over-activity of the thyroid gland.

Rheumatic heart disease, which usually begins between the ages of 6 and 12, is perhaps caused by some type of streptococcus. Last, but not least, is hypertensive heart disease, which is due to long-standing high blood pressure.

DON'T KNOW CAUSE

But, although we know that high blood pressure causes more heart disease in middle life than any other condition, we still do not know what causes the hypertension. We must sit by and wait until brilliant investigators in the laboratories and at the bedside discover the true nature of the causative agent. Until this is found, all our attempts are only palliative at best.

We know that some agent liberated by the glands of internal secretion, such as the adrenal, thyroid, and pituitary, or liberated by the direct action of poisons within the vessels themselves or by some distortion in the normal mechanism of the nervous system, may be the cause of high blood pressure. At this time it is more or less guesswork. When we find the agent, we can cope with it directly.

Until that time, if you have high blood pressure, you must not feel too despondent because high blood pressure seems such a menace.

EFFECTS ON HEART

Coronary-artery disease is often found in hearts that have been subjected over many years to prolonged hypertension. Dilation and enlargement of the left chamber of the heart (left ventricle) often follows persistent high blood pressure.

The steady encroachment upon the blood-vessel supply of the kidneys by the thickening of the coats of the smaller arterioles leads to kidney damage and chronic nephritis. The increased pressure within the cerebral arteries, forcing the already hardened and weakened vessels of the brain to withstand terrific punishment, is another aftermath of high blood pressure.

I tell you this because, in all fairness to you, a doctor who talks to you about high blood pressure should not be a Pollyanna. An optimist, yes. But he must not be so blind to dangerous realities that the patient is led to believe that all this talk about high blood pressure is sensational tommyrot.

DANGERS LURK

Face the fact that there are potential dangers way off in the distance and perhaps you will regulate your existence well enough to defer their entrance into the picture. You must develop the philosophy of acceptance. You must have faith. You must have hope.

I have seen many patients with high blood pressure (with extremely high blood pressure) go along for over 20 years without heart failure, kidney failure, or hemorrhage in the brain. Your job as a sick person is not to sell yourself short.

If you can learn to think only in terms of yourself and not in terms of devastating and depressing statistics, your outlook for a longer and happier life will be better.

FIGHTING SPIRIT

For example, one person out of four or five may die during the first attack of coronary occlusion. Why should you think that you are to be that one? The greater odds are that you won't. And, having recovered from that attack, you may be one of the coronary patients who will be alive 20 or 25 years after that attack. If you get your first attack at 50, then you must admit that shuffling off at 70 or 75 isn't what you might call too bad.

The fighting spirit is what turns a loser into a winner. I have seen hundreds of patients who have handled their heart disease much better, have lived longer, and have been much happier than the thousands of patients I have observed who lived in fear and despondency.

Until we discover the formula that will prevent or cure high blood pressure, you must learn to live with and accept any complications that may arise.

Power Row Due Airing Here Sept. 2

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19 (AP)—The apparently stalemated dispute over distribution of federal power in Georgia will undoubtedly get a going over Sept. 2 when a House subcommittee investigating administration power policies holds a hearing in Atlanta.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Chudoff (D-Pa), has been concentrating on whether laws giving public groups priority to federal power are being fully observed—the heart of the Georgia controversy.

Involved in the Georgia fight, unsettled after over four years of squabbling, is that state's half share of the power generated at the government's Clark Hill Dam on the Savannah River. Rivals for the energy are the Georgia Power Co., a private utility, and an organization of Georgia electric cooperatives—preference groups.

COOPERATIVES OBJECT

The utility is the only Georgia concern with transmission lines to the Clark Hill project and has proposed buying the power and then retailing it to the cooperatives. The cooperatives objected to this arrangement.

The Interior Department then proposed to assure the cooperatives delivery at certain prices by a series of interlocking agreements between the power company, the cooperatives and the federal government.

The cooperatives failed to approve this proposal also, contending they were the only groups which legally could take title to the power immediately after its generation. They want to buy the power from the government, then make separate transmission agreements with the power company.

NO SIGNS OF PROGRESS

At last reports, the Rural Electrification Administration had joined the Interior Department in trying to iron out the situation but no signs of progress have been disclosed.

The power, in the meantime, is being sold on bids—with most of it going to South Carolina preference groups. The Interior Department sold the energy to the Georgia Power Co. under short term contracts for some time but discontinued this over a year ago and started the bid sales.

The subcommittee, in addition to Georgia, will hold hearings in four other states later this month and in September. It is the public works and resources subcommittee of the House Government Operations Committee.

The group held hearings here during the past session of Congress and heard former and present officials of the Interior Department testify on disposal of power generated at federal plants and transmission of the energy.

Eagles' Aerie Here Indicted On Lottery Operation Charge

Aerie No. 714 of the Fraternal Order of Eagles was indicted Friday on a misdemeanor charge of operating a lottery.

The charge, made against the Aerie, at 107 Luckie St., NW, followed the seizure late Thursday of an electronic device which Fulton Sol. Gen. Paul Webb said was being used for gambling.

The indictment by the Fulton County Grand Jury charges the club, a corporation, did "keep, maintain and operate a lottery known as 'Electronic Pointmaker,' for the hazarding of money."

Club officials denied the device was being used for gambling purposes and contended federal courts have ruled it legal in four states.

The device resembles a slot machine but has no slot for the insrtion of coins or a pay-off chute. Webb contends chances on the machine are bought from a cashier who also makes the pay-off.

In another action Friday, the grand jury indicted a 50-year-old Charlotte, N.C., man on two charges of robbery in connection with two "cap-pistol" robberies here Aug. 13.

The indictment charges C. E. Horn with robbing the Plaza Finance Co., 90 Plaza Way, and Sherman's Shop, 83-A Whitehall Street, Southwest.

Horn told police he bought the nickel-plated cap pistol in New York City and robbed a Philadelphia shoe store of $80 Aug. 8 before he came to Atlanta Aug. 13.

Horn took $42.75 from a cash drawer at the Atlanta dress shop, police records showed. He was offered $1 at the loan firm, but fled. Mrs. Nora Speaks of 645 N. Elbridge Dr., NW, an employe at the dress shop, chased Horn into a dime store where he was apprehended.

The jury also indicted an Atlanta used-car salesman on 24 counts of larceny after trust in connection with the sale of 14 used cars. The indictments charge Ralph J. Green with selling the cars and converting more than $26,000 from their sale to his own use.

The jury also indicted a former service station employe of converting to his own use $638.13 in service station funds. He was identified as Cecil Owels Dill, formerly of an address on Stewart Ave., SW.

2 Lawyers Join Integration Fight

Two more Georgia attorneys Friday were appointed special deputy attorneys general to aid in segregation litigation.

Gov. Griffin's office announced appointment of Hal Lindsey, Atlanta lawyer and former federal prosecuting attorney, and Howell Hollis, Columbus lawyter and state senator.

Appointment of 15 special deputies was announced previously. Additional attorneys have volunteered their services, the governor's office said.

Up-Education Drive Joined By Tech Men

Georgia Tech set the gears in motion Friday to start a program to lift school standards to a level with any institution in the nation.

The announcement was made by Atlanta's Walter Mitchell, president of the Georgia Tech Foundation Board, following a joint meeting of the Tech Foundation Board and the Georgia Tech National Alumni Foundation Board here Friday.

Twenty-two members at the specially called meeting voted unanimously to institute a program similar in aims to the one recently established by the University of Georgia Alumni Assn.

Mitchell and Dave Arnold of Griffin, president of the Tech Alumni Board, said the Tech Foundation will join hands with the university group in a concentrated effort to raise the standards of higher education in Georgia.

A joint committee composed of Foundation Board members and Alumni Board members will be appointed soon. This group will select a man to head the expansive program.

Mitchell added that "the Tech Foundation is wholly in accord with the aims and purposes of the Georgia Foundation."

"We think they've a wonderful program and we're flattered the leaders of the Georgia Foundation asked us to join with them in their efforts to help the cause of higher education in the state."

Georgia Has Neglected Cities, Griffin Says, and Vows Aid

Gov. Griffin feels that Georgia and other states have neglected their big cities.

"That's why the big cities have to go to Washington for assistance," Griffin said during a press conference Friday.

To fulfill the state's obligations to its cities, Griffin said he plans to step up state aid to Atlanta and other Georgia cities as much as possible.

"Assisting Atlanta build an access road to the airport is one way the state can serve," Griffin said. The state also can give aid to Atlanta in completing its downtown expressway connector.

"If I can do anything to help Atlanta develop its resources, it will help the entire state," the governor commented.

The promise of help to the City of Atlanta in its problems also applies to other Georgia cities, Griffin asserted.

Satin Overblouse Gives Lift To Colorful Fall Tweed Suit

The satin overblouse is my favorite blouse this fall.

Whether your suit is a soft, colorful tweed or very fine duvetyn or broadcloth, a satin blouse will give it a lift.

And when it's an overblouse, then you've touched one of the stars in fashion.

I like quite a heavy satin for an overblouse, silk or a silk-faced rayon satin.

Sleeveless if you want to wear it either 5 o'clock and after, but three-quarter unmounted sleeves are more practical.

Try to wear it unbelted, it's much smarter and really better for your figure.

Pick white or any soft, pretty satin color that blends with your suit, thus you create a beautiful and very new-looking ensemble.

HUSBAND FROWNS AND WIFE GRINS—BOTH FOR GOOD REASON
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Little Leave for Pops Orchestra Rehearsal

Musician With Flute in His Pocket Married and Took on Big Burden

By ANNE SPALDING

Warren Little, flutist, was feeling pretty smug.

Why not? After all, he was young and single and a rising musician. And, besides, he was free of the bane of most musicians' lives—the back-breaking job of transporting a heavy, cumbersome instrument from performance to performance.

Being a foresighted type, he had chosen one of the lightest, most compact of all musical instruments—the flute. He could slip his flute into a neat case and stash it in his back pocket. All was well with him and the world.

But wait!

One day, when Warren was feeling his smuggest, a mere slip of a girl entered the woodwind class he was teaching in his spare time between symphony engagements.

She was pretty, perky and brunette. Her name was Jane Finley and she was studying clarinet.

Teacher walked pupil home from class that day and found out that she was joining the Atlanta Pops Orchestra, in which he played flute. He made arrangements to take her to rehearsal.

Warren was getting smugger by the minute. Rehearsal night he pocketed his flute, walked to Jane's house and rang the doorbell.

She was ready with the instrument she was going to play in the Pops—a bass violin twice her size.

"Not this!" he said.

"Oh, yes. I play bass and just study clarinet for fun," she said.

That was the beginning of the end of Warmen's smug days. From then on he toted the big fiddle while Jane carried the flute.

They fell in love and, within a year, they were married. That was two years ago. And now, two years and some 100 concerts later, Warren is still lugging the bass violin around, as good-naturedly as one could expect.

Their next joint engagement is the Pops Concert Sunday afternoon at the Fox Theater.

Warren said he will keep on carrying the fiddle for Jane. "I guess I started off wrong, but it's too late now to change," he said.

Jane—the smug member of the family now—doesn't gloat out loud, except to say:

"A friend of mine plays the harp, but her husband isn't so co-operative. He says if she insists on playing it she can carry it herself."

500 Attend Indoor Picnic

By YOLANDE GWIN

Even picnics have gone modern.

No flies, no bugs, no bumpy slopes for temporary tables, no scooting to cover in case of rain. No after-effects of chigger bites or poison ivy.

The picnic held by the parish of St. Philip's Cathedral the other night was so modern that it took on the excitement of an opening night. And why not? The great new air-conditioned Hall of Bishops was turned into a picnic area with the magic of a Hollywood production.

Outside were William Byers and Emory A. Chandler of the Men's Club of the cathedral herding cars into parking spaces after the women folks piled out laden with baskets filled with the usual picnic fare. One woman had a tray full of stuffed crabs.

RESPECTFUL BEDLAM

Inside the great hall, bedlam was at a respectful height. Recorded music was coming from an undisclosed corner to compete with chatter of some 500 members of the parish.

At the kitchen corner counter, lemonade, coffee and iced tea were going faster than hot cakes.

At the end of the hall at the stage area sat the Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Sausey and the latter's mother, Mrs. Gerald Griffin, who had their laps covered with paper plates of food.

Canon Sam Cobb and Mrs. Cobb were glimpsed swapping chicken for chocolate cake with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clodfelter.

The youngest picnicker was 4-month-old Sarah Croft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Croft Jr., who was so bored with it all that she slept through the evening on a pallet beside her mother's chair.

Clothes ranged from the bright-colored red-and-white dress worn by Mrs. John Candler II to the blue evening dress worn by Mary Collette who with husband Fred led the square dancers.

COATLESS

All the men were coatless and many had their sport shirts hanging out. Only five—Dean Raimundo deOvies, Milton Keeler, James Oliver, Ed Holman and Royal Terrell went "formal" with coats and ties.

The crowd began kicking up their heels when "Dixie" was played and the battle cry became "Swing Your Partners" and "Promenade" for the square dance.

Children Returning With Stories of Camp

By YOLANDE GWIN

Parents are getting some first-hand accounts of camp life this week as children return filled with exciting stories of "roughing it" during the summer.

One girl, Ann Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foster, is just back from Camp Deerwoode in Brevard, N.C., where she had her first experience camping "down South." Last summer this eighth grader at North Fulton High School attended Camp Kiniya in Milton, Vt.

"Things certainly are different there," she reported. "We had lights in our cabin and could play the radio. And we had grits for breakfast. I did notice the difference in the beach, however. Up in Vermont we had a real one with sand, and at Deerwoode it was all grass. Kiniya is mostly for sailing while Deerwoode is for horsebacking."

Ann and Barbara Hazel, Judy Anne Hall, Lucy Smith and Louise Coleman were tentmates in "Dame's Den."

"My tent in Vermont was called "Skunk Hole" because there were a lot of skunks around!" Ann said.

SPEAKING OF CAMPS, Georgia White of Concord, Mass., has been attending Rockbrook Camp at Brevard, and is now in town visiting her aunt, Mrs. White Hancock. Mrs. Hancock has been in Concord visiting Georgia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White, who returned to Atlanta with her for a visit and to collect their daughter for the return North.

Yesterday Mrs. Hancock gathered some of the campers for a swimming party and luncheon at Brookhaven Country Club honoring her niece.

They were Libba Barnett and her visitor, Ann Canty of Augusta; Marina Meade and her guest, Helen Darling of Augusta; Mary Elizabeth Hunter, Eden White and Kay Patton.

HURRICANE CONNIE rivaled usual camp activities for attention at Camp Sea Gull, near New Bern, N.C. Some 15 Atlanta youngsters, including John Kirkley, 2415 Dellwood Dr., NW, will leave the camp for home Saturday, following a month's stay there.

In a long letter to his mother, Mrs. Ralph Kirkley, John gave a vivid account of Connie's arrival at the camp. The letter, tabbed "Diary of Hurricane Connie," described the storm, from the first light rain through the rising winds, plans for evacuating the camp and finally the result of Connie's assault on the camp.

"Everything will be in a general mess for a couple of days," the letter, written during the storm, related. "About 10 or more trees are down . . . the dam went and the lake is half gone. The pier . . . is all gone except the end. I think the sailfish shed is gone. We have no water (written Aug. 12) . . . the power came on in time for dinner but it is off again."

EUGENE R. BLACK JR., formerly of Atlanta and now of Washington, D.C., arrived in town yesterday to join his mother, Mrs. Eugene Black, for a visit to his sister, Mrs. Walter Wellborn, in Maxwellborn, Ala.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES COX and daughter Anne Cox, who have been vacationing in Atlantic Beach, Fla., are expected home today.

SUMMER IS REALLY WANING when news comes about the final parties at clubs. Members of East Lake Country Club, who have been dining and dancing nightly on the moonlit terrace, had better enjoy these last few weeks. The final party is set for Sept. 5. After that date there will be only Saturday night dancing.

AFTER A GAY VISIT with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Murdock Equen, at their summer home at Highlands, N.C., Mrs. Perry Ballard Jr. has returned home.

MR. AND MRS. S. H. MASON and Phil Mason have returned from Falls Church, Va., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ellison R. Cochran. They also visited in Washington, D.C.

Hartsfield Okays Air Line Tract

By HERMAN HANCOCK

Mayor Hartsfield Friday completed approval of all measures sent to his desk from Monday's meeting of the aldermanic board, including:

1. A zoning ordinance permitting a new industrial development on an 80-acre tract off DeFoor's Ferry avenue, NW. The mayor approved the proposal after assurances from Seaboard Air Line officials that 150-feet buffer zones will be maintained exclusively for forests on DeFoor's frontage also along Woodall's creek and that no ingress or egress from DeFoor's Ferry avenue will be provided unless a new applicated is submitted.

Hartsfield asked the assurance to meet community objections. William E. Hayes, president of civic associations in that area, urged a vote and said a court battle may develop.

All planning groups approved the change and the aldermanic board concurred at last Monday's session.

2. A measure providing for the tranfer of a retail liquor store license for Dan's Liquor Store, 3072 Roswell Rd., NW, to a lot at 608 14th St., NW.

The transfer was approved by Capt. J. L. Tuggle, investigator for the aldermanic board's police committee, the police committee and the aldermanic board. Capt. Tuggle said the lot is owned by Cracker Nelson and that the transfer was a routine matter. Mrs. Thelma Herring owned the operating license on Roswell road.

3. A resolution closing the city hall Saturday, Sept. 3, assuring employes a long Labor Day holiday. The city hall will close at 5 p.m. Friday, Sept. 2 and will reopen at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 6, the day after Labor Day.

A meeting of the aldermanic board which normally would be held at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 5, will be deferred until the same time, Tuesday, Sept. 6.

Children of Revolution From Dixie Meet Here

Some 90 members of the National Society of Children of the American Revolution began a two-day regional meeting here Friday. Representing Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Texas, the group toured Atlanta and attended a dance at the Atlanta Athletic Club during opening-day activities.

A business meeting and election of regional officers Saturday morning, followed by a luncheon at the Paradise Room of the Henry Grady Hotel, will climax the meeting. Some of the delegates are expected to remain over the weekend for sightseeing. Mayor William B. Hartsfield is expected to address the group Saturday.

Mrs. Larry Allgood, Toccoa, senior state president, said this convention "is one of the largest and most enjoyable we have attended."

At the business meeting Saturday, site of the 1956 conclave will be selected and officers for the ensuing year elected. Miss Eugenia Ricau, junior national vice president from New Orleans, will preside.

Mrs. Kenneth Sapp, 98 Peachtree Memorial Dr., NW, explained members of the organization may later join either the Sons or Daughters of the American Revolution when they become 21.

Among the national and regional officers from Georgia here for the convention are Mrs. Arthur Mallory, LaGrange; Bruce Schaefer, Toccoa, Mrs. Allgood, and John Corbett Jr., Pearson.

9-Month Wait On Civil Trial Fulton Norm

Average time required for a civil suit to come to trial after its filing in Fulton County courts has doubled in the past year, the Institute of Judicial Administration, Inc. reported Friday.

The increase was noted in the institute's third annual survey of the number of months elapsing from the filing of civil cases to the trial in principal courts of the 48 states.

The survey said the period in Fulton County increased from 4.5 to 9 months. Average delay for non-jury cases in 98 courts decreased from 5.1 months in 1954 to 4.6 months in 1955. The average delay for jury cases is 11.4 months.

The survey noted that delays generally were longer in more heavily populated counties. For counties with populations between 500,000 to 750,000, the average delay for jury cases is 15.1 months.

Other increases were noted in Cuyahoga County (Cleveland), Ohio, 14 to 24 months; Dallas county (Dallas) Texas, 9 to 15 months, and Ramsey County (St. Paul), Minn., 10 to 15 months.

Decreases were noted in Hartford County, Conn.; Kings County, N.Y.; Jackson County, Mo.; Knox County, Tenn.; Richmond, Va., and Multnomah County, Ore.

Training Set For Georgia's 'Dixie Wing'

Two hundred and seventy-one Atlanta Air Force reservists—members of the "Dixie Wing," Georgia's only active Air Force Reserve Wing, will meet at Dobbins Air Force Base in Marietta Sunday to begin "Operation Wingspread."

Coming from 110 Georgia towns as well as 22 towns in seven other states, the reservists will train as a unit through Sept. 4 in combat tactics ranging from interception and air-to-air gunnery to formation flying and instrument training for all-weather capability.

Col. George H. Wilson of Macon, commander of the 482 Fighter-Bomber Wing, said, "This year, for the first time, Air Force Reservists in the 'Dixie Wing' will train as members of a fighter-bomber unit."

Because of its strategic location, Dobbins AFB was selected as one of 25 bases in the United States where members of Air Force Reserve units—totaling over 18,000—will take part in "Operation Wingspread."

Reservists from Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, North and South Carolina and Texas will leave their civilian jobs in offices and factories to don their Air Force uniforms. Pilots will receive jet transition instruction and perform simulated fighter-bomber missions over Georgia, while other members of the wing are participating in "on-the-job training" in fields of maintenance, supply, food service and other sections which constitute an Air Force Wing.

George T. Farrar In Sheriff Race

A fourth candidate revealed Friday his intention to seek election in September 1956 as Fulton County sheriff.

He is George T. Farrar, 40, of 2380 Campbellton Rd., SW, a livestock auctioneer and cattleman and a former railroad man.

A lifelong resident of Fulton County, Farrar said he believes the county "needs a good sheriff." His intention to run is based on his desire to "put in a full-time job as sheriff for the people," he said.

Married and the father of three children, Farrar has long been associated in auctioneering with the Ragsdale McClure Co. and the Hasty Auction Co.

5 Petitions Approved

The Municipal Board of Adjustment Friday approved five petitions, all it considered. The session was presided over by Alfred Pitman, chairman.

Remodeling Plan Shuffles 3 Units At Courthouse

Three Fulton County departments were moved to other offices at the county courthouse Friday as a preliminary to remodeling the building's first floor.

Building Supt. Guy Eaves said the county chaplain was moved from the ninth to the third floor, the county surveyor from the fifth to the ninth floor and the supervisory probation department from the east to the west side of the fifth floor.

Eaves said the county ordinary's office would be moved to the fifth floor "in a few days."

The Superior Court clerk's office will be moved to the space occupied by the ordinary while the clerk's office is remodeled. Then the ordinary's office and a new sheriff's office will be remodeled and those officers moved to their new quarters.

Eaves said the second phase of the remodeling, which he said will inconvenience the public more than any other, will be completed about Feb. 1. It covers the courthouse basement and first floor.

7 Men Killed As AF Plane Rams Peak

HAWTHORNE, Nev., Aug. 19 (AP)—At least seven men perished today in the fiery crash of an Air Force transport plane into a barren mountain 13 miles northeast of here.

Marine Lt. Col. George Stallings of Hawthorne Naval Ammunition Depot reported seven bodies were found when rescuers were able to enter the charred wreckage five hours after the crash.

He said search parties were combing the mountainous area on the chance that others may have parachuted.

Stead Air Force Base at Reno, the nearest Air Force installation, said the plane didn't come from there but refused to say whether it had a flight plan for the craft.

The big two-motored plane swooped low over Walker Lake shortly before the crash.

There was no indication it was in trouble, however. A commercial landing field was only two miles to the north, but the plane turned east, climbed over lakeshore foothills and crashed about 10 miles east of the lake into a 6,000-foot mountain peak in broad daylight.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my wife, Irene Tolbert Jordan, who departed this life 20 years ago today, Aug. 20, 1935.
Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. Life's weary trials and sufferings past. In silence you suffered. In patience you bore, until God called you home to suffer no more. What happy days we once enjoyed when we were together, but oh, how changed it all is now since you have gone forever. I saw you suffer, I saw you go, it crumbled my heart, I loved you so. But it was God who loved you best, who took you home and gave you rest.
